AT SOUTHERN RESORTS

Dinners at Virginia Beach.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA., March 26—Several very pleasant dinners were the features of the week, and which well illustrate the cordial good fellowship which exists among the guests here.

Among the most novel of these features was an "oyster roast" given by Mr.
M. C. Conner of New York, in honor of Miss Lillian Groves, at Cape Henry.
After lunching the party visited the sand hills, light house and wireless station, returning to the hotel to witness a mock marriage between Dr. P. K. Graybill, alias Mr. P. K. Buckshot, and Miss Patti Warren, alias Mrs. Mary Louise Longacres. Following the ceremony the party were entertained at dinner by Mr. James P. Groves, after which adjournment was made to the ball room which had, in the interval, been transformed into a mock court room.

On Tuesday Miss Christine Groves gave a dinner of fourteen covers in honor of Miss Henrietta Crawford of Montclair, and on Wednesday Judge M. C. McIntosh of Chicago, entertained Miss Carrie Allen of Norfolk, and Mrs. Reginald Sprague Roby of South Africa, a dozen covers being laid. The table was beautifully decorated with American beauty roses and souvenir bouquets of violets which were distributed after the last toast.

At the Casino Monday evening a very interesting entertainment was given in querade ball of the hotel employees, for the benefit of the emergency sick fund, occupied the building Tuesday evening and furnished amusement for a large company which taxed the capacity of the building. Wednesday there was a concert by Swift's orchestra, interspersed with tableaux for the benefit of St. John's Episcopal church.

visitors are: Mrs. C. E. Haggerty, Miss Haggerty, Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crosby and
