APRIL GUESTS---OLD FRIENDS

They Constitute a Large Proportion of Week's List of Arrivals.

Delightful Weather and Interest in the Championship Tournament Keeps All Out of Doors.

APRIL guests and returning friends constitute a large proportion of the week's arrivals, and delightful weather is tempting many who have spent the winter here to prolong their visits. Social pleasures were pushed into the background, somewhat, by interest in the championship tournament; but there were many very pleasant informal affairs in the way of dinners, card parties, riding parties and the like.

At The Carolina.

Publisher Frank A. Munsey, New York, and Lieut-Col. J. B. McLean, Toronto, spent a portion of the week here with Vice President E. F. Cost, General Passenger Agent C. B. Ryan and other Seaboard Air Line Railway officials, coming by private car.

Mrs. Bruce Campbell, Newark, N. J., spent the week here with her mother and sister. As Miss Caroline Check, Mrs. Campbell has spent many seasons here, and her return was welcome to a large circle of friends and acquaintances.
