BIG FIELD TRIALS COMING

Continental and Pointer Clubs Booked for Early December.

Village Guests Will Join With Visiting Sportsmen in Following the Dogs.

An early season feature of special interest will be field trials to be held here, during December, under the auspices of the Continental Field Trial Club and the Pointer Club of America. Sportsmen from many parts of the country will be in attendance, but the interest in the events will be by no means confined to them, but generally enjoyed by Village guests. The selection of Pinehurst is also a fitting tribute to its prominence among sportsmen.

CONTINENTAL CLUB TRIALS.

The Continental Field Trial Club's program begins December first, the purse in the Derby and All-age stakes being $500.00 each, the former being open to all pointers and setter puppies whelped after January first, 1905, and the latter to all setters and pointers not having won first in any all-age event of previous seasons, at any field trials recognized by the club.

The stakes to be run and the final forfeits are as follows:

MEMBERS' SWEEPSTAKES—Saturday, December first. Open also to members of the Eastern Field Trial Club, and members of the Pointer Club of America. Entries to close night before the running. All winners of open stakes at any field trials recognized by this club are debarred. Entry, $10.00.

The Pointer Club trials commence December tenth; a guarantee of $400.00 each having been made for the Derby and All-age stakes, which are open to the world.

The following stakes will be run:

MEMBERS' STAKE—For pointers owned by members previous to September 1, 1906. Entry, $10, payable before starting. Mr. George Bleistein has generously donated to the Members' Stake a silver cup, value $250, competition to be confined to amateur members and to be won three times, but not necessarily with the same dog. Professional handlers, if members, cannot compete for it, but are not barred from competition in stake.

DERBY STAKE—Open to all pointer puppies, whelped since January 1, 1905. First forfeit of $5, due September 1; second forfeit of $10, due November 1, and $10 additional to start. Entries closed. Guaranteed value of purse, $400, divided, 50 per cent. to first, 30 per cent. to second and 20 per cent. to third.

MASSACHUSETTS CHAMPION.

Professional Alex. Ross Wins New Laurels During Summer.

Professional Alexander Ross has enjoyed a successful summer, his most important achievement being the winning of the Massachusetts State Championship. He was also the winner of the best ball foursomes event at the Columbia Golf Club's Spring tournament, playing with W. K. Wood of Chicago, winner of last year's United North and South Championship here, and in the National Championship he won sixth prize with an average of seventy-seven and one-half for the four rounds.

Professional Donald Ross has devoted most of the summer to teaching with excellent success, nine of his pupils being entered in the Women's National Championship, one of them, Miss Mary B. Adams, being defeated in the finals by Miss Curtis, 2 and 1.

U. S. R. A. National Championship.

The annual National Championship matches of the United States Revolver Association were held in September, attracting a big field of contestants, John A. Dietz, Jr., of New York, winning both the revolver and pistol events, scoring 444 in the former and 448 in the latter, using Smith and Wesson arms in both cases.

It is interesting to note that there was but one woman contestant, Mrs. C. C. Crossman of St. Louis, in striking contrast with the State Championship event held here annually in which the women contestants have, thus far, outnumbered the men.

Their Twenty-fifth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Freeman of Brooklyn, well known to many guests here, observed the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage, Thursday, October fourth, the occasion being made a merry one through the presence of a host of friends. Pinehurst has few more ardent admirers than the Freemans, and THE OUTLOOK joins with its readers in wishing them health and happiness.

Midlothian Club Selected.

The Midlothian Country Club, Chicago, has been selected by the American Golf Association of Advertising Interests for its annual summer tournament. The contest will take place in July.

The Village Market.

The Village Market is, this season, again in charge of Batchelder & Snyder Company, Boston.
