New Year's Dance, and Progressive Bridge Tourney are Among Week's Pleasures.

HE WEEK at The Holly Inn has been one of the merriest of the season, with social pleasures much in evidence, a dance in honor of the departing year, private dinner and bridge whist tournament being features of the week.

GHOST DANCE FOR OLD YEAR.

New Years eve the young people had a merry time of it, a dance speeding the old and welcoming the New Year, the special feature being a ghost dance at midnight.

Lights were extinguished, a group of candles placed in the hall, and circling with clasped hands the merry group turned itself loose.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH ENTERTAIN.

A delightful feature of the week was a midnight supper given in honor of the departing year and the coming of the new for a party of ten friends, by Mr. and Mrs. I. D. H. Ralph of Philadelphia.

Seats were taken shortly before twelve and cigars were being lighted just as the clock chimed the midnight hour. The "silent toast" was drank then "Old Lang Syne" sung with clasped hands, and an hour spent pleasantly in story telling.

tained guests New Years Eve, Mrs. A.

AT THE BERKSHIRE.

Opening of Popular Hotel Signal for Incoming of Old Friends.

The Berkshire threw back its hospitable doors Tuesday, and the event is the signal for an incoming of old friends, many of whom are booked for the coming week.
This popular hotel is more inviting than ever before because of extensive renovation, and it seems good to find Manager and Mrs. F. H. Abbott in their accustomed places.

No hotel in the Village is more homelike in its character, and the quiet charm of life here is responsible for demands for accommodations which are far beyond the supply. There is also a fascination about the location which appeals to all, and the broad sunlit verandas are the envy of the entire Village.

Among the first to register were Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wilson and little Miss Elizabeth of Pittsburg, who come after a month at The Inn, and will remain until the house closes.

Mrs. Mary E. Stone, Mr. Arthur C.
Stone and Mr. C. Edward Barney of Providence, are here for a long sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Clark of Westville, will, as usual, be located here, and those booked for the immediate future include many who have been annual visitors for years.

THE CAROLINA OPENING.

Carolina takes place January eleventh entire Village for it is the signal for the commencement of many delightful social affairs which are a delightful feature of the winter season.
