At The Lenox and Cedars.

A decidedly novel and entertaining affair, in which silhouettes of the guests played a prominent part, was given at The Lenox Friday evening. Three handsome prizes were offered to the ones who succeeded in guessing the largest number of correct names of the persons represented. Mrs. Everett E. Wilbar, Misses Rose W. Scott, Meta Brooke and Elizabeth Roe, Mrs. Le Gendre, Mrs. H. P. Bailey, Mr. J. B. Larzelere and Mr. John Roe, who handed in complete lists, cut for the prizes, Miss Brooke, Miss Scott and Mr. Larzelere winning on the draw.

An aftermath of fun and mystery of the affair was the disappearance of a number of the silhouettes, which had been left in the parlor, and it is suspected that some of the young and sterner sex may be able to explain the whereabouts of the missing likenesses.

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895, it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are bath rooms, electric lights, steam heat and open fireplaces. There is a call bell in every room, and all beds are furnished with best hair mattresses. An orchestra furnishes fine concerts daily, and also provides for dancing. The cuisine is unsurpassed. The waitresses are all white girls from the North. Rooms for billiards and other games are provided in the hotel.
