AT SOUTHERN RESORTS.

social Gaities are Numerous at St Augustine and Ormond.

ST. AUGUSTINE, FLA., January 30-The opening of the local Country Club has been received with general satisfaction as shown by the numerous applications for membership, many of them Hotel Magnolia guests. The special feature of the week was a team match between the local and St. Augustine teams, the former winning by 11 to 4 on the Nassau system of scoring at match play.

The Bridge whist tournament which has been in progress at The Magnolia, terminated on Thursday last, when the handsome prizes were awarded the winners: Mrs. George Stewart of Marion, Ind., Miss E. Eunice Evans of Youngs. town, Ohio, Miss B. Smith of Wilmington, Del., Mr. A. H. Neff of Brooklyn, Mr. L. G. McDowell and Mr. H. B. Banning of Cincinnati.

A cuchre party tendered by the management provided a pleasant evening recently, Mrs. Frank Allen of Chattanooga, Miss Banning, of Cincinnati, Mrs. C. F. Pollock, of New York, and Miss B. Smith being the prize winners.

Bishop and Mrs. William F. McDowell are prominent late arrivals at The Magnolia, Miss E. Eunice Evans of Youngstown, Ohio, will spend the season with her friend, Miss Catherine L. Gilman.

Other late comers include many former patrons, among them Mr. and Mrs. George Kingley, Troy, N. Y.; Mrs. S. Smith, Asbury Park, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Carvill, Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Bertha V. Smith, Asbury Park; Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Perry, Messrs, T. L. and E. S. Perry and Miss G. Lathrop, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Hoagland, Mrs. J. S. Hedden and Mrs. A. E. Childs, Newark, N. J.

Ormond, Fla., Jan. 24-Ormond has just witnessed one of the most successful weeks in its history; still the departures of the many guests who came only for the automobile race-meet is hardly noticeable, so large is the influx of returning patrons and of new-comers. Many noted people are in the list, and social pleasures have been much in evidence.

(MISS ESTRER'S GUESTS.

Birthday Observance Occasion of Keen Enjoyment for Children.

The observation of the ninth birthday anniversary of Miss Esther Tufts, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tufts, was a never-to-be-forgotten occasion for a merry group of children, Saturday.

Dinner at The Carolina, with gayly colored paper caps to wear and a big table all to themselves, was followed by a romp in the Music Room.

The guests included Misses Virginia Rinehart, Eleanor Brown, Ellen McMillan, Mary Jordan, Dorothy Coleman and Mabel Bliss, and Masters Richard, Albert and James Tufts.

The events include a medal play handicap for the boys, and a putting competition for girls, and the prizes, selected by a committee of children, are especially TICKETS AT PHARMACY AND HOTELS dainty and attractive.

UNION VESPER SERVICES.

Sermon by Rev. A. L. Squier and Spe cial Music at Village Hall.

Union vesper services with sermon by Rev. A. L. Squier, and special music, at the Village Hall, Sunday afternoon, were enjoyed by a large congregation. Rev. Mr. Squier's theme was "A Life Poem in a Page of Prose" and the text from I Chronicles, 4:9.

"The chief joy in life," he said, "is in discovery; and that pleasure is enhanced in finding values in unexpected places. Here amid a weary tabulation of genealological names is the record of a poem of God's grace. This life came into the world under protest. Deep obscurity surrounds his birth, parentage, and environments. Yet he pushed on to a sunlit crag on the steep sides of the mountain, and made for himself a place in the enumeration of the great and good. Difficulties are the fulcrum with which men overturn mediocrity. Hardships are the springboards from which men leap to places of power. History is being made, not by the soft and indulgent, but by those who have iron in their blood. This character whom we study today took all the fiery dart of a humble, and perhaps stigmatized parentage, and quenched all in the bosom of a brimming life."

In response to numerous requests, Rev. Mr. Squier will conduct Vesper services tomorrow at four o'clock, his sermon being on the theme, "The Strength of the Inner Quiet." A song service will precede the sermon.

FOOT BALL MANAGER.

Karl Abbott a Popular Freshman at Goddard Seminary.

Karl Abbott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Abbott of The Berkshire, has just been elected Manager of the 'Varsity foot ball team at Goddard Seminary where he is a freshman.

Bowling for Women.

It is estimated that there are 20,000 women bowlers in New York and two hundred clubs formed exclusively of women residing in cities on the Atlantic seaboard are about to form the Eastern Womens Bowling Congress to arrange for championship contests.

In view of this fact it is somewhat surprising that the spirit is not more popular among the fair sex here. To be sure there are some devotees but they are by no means as numerous as the sport demands.

There has long been local talk of matinee events and they would no doubt meet with favor here. Why not a trial at least?

If you want to see dollars grow, feed your fields with Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers. They will "increase your yields per acre," and thus bring down the cost of production, even if you use fewer teams and less labor.

We have thousands of strong testimonials from farmers who have tried other makes of fertilizers and assert that are by far the best. They will give you crops that will make more money for you. Buy no other, even if some dealer endeavors to get you to buy some "cheap" brand just because he may make a little more profit on that. Of course, that would be to his interest—not yours. not yours.
