Miss Margaret Gallagher of Corunna, Mich., of The Magnolia, entertained at dinner recently Miss Bovee, St. Augustine, Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Smith, St. Augustine, Miss H. Todd, Ann Arbor, Mich., and Miss Fannie Young of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Miss E. Eunice Evans of Youngstown, O., and Miss Louise Reifsnider of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Bertha Smith of Asbury Park, N. J., were the patronesses of the children's party given by The Magnolia management. A very pleasant afternoon was spent, refreshments were served and a pretty souvenir of the occasion given to each child.

Among the distinguished recent arrivals at The Magnolia, were the Hon. Melville Bull, former Governor of Rhode Island. Mr. Everett M. Bryant of Newport, R. I., accompanies the Governor. They will spend the winter here.

Mrs. C. F. Fuller and her charming daughter, Miss F. K. Fuller, of New York, received a warm welcome from their many friends on their return for their annual sojourn.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McNally and their charming daughter, Miss G. McNally of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Eddy and Mrs. H. Howard Ridgley of Baltimore, are also guests here.

Mrs. B. W. Chase and son of Detroit, Mich., who have spent many previous seasons here, return. Other charming additions include Mrs. W. H. Sherer of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hotchkiss of Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. B. Harper and children of Philadelphia, spent the week with their friends. Mrs. E. Edwards of Boston, Mass., is one of the charming women domiciled here.

Ohio is well represented by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sackett, from Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Sabin Robbins, Middletown; Mrs. Sarah K. Smith, Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Vine D. Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hegamaster, Mr. and Mrs. William Knigge of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Allyn of Cleveland, and Mr. J. Hermyer, Cincinnati.

Golf at Ormond.

ORMOND, FLA., February 12—Many forms of recreation are presented to the Ormond visitors, but golf this year is in the lead, owing to the improved condition of the course, with which old patrons express great satisfaction.

Twelve acres of good turf have been added and a good dressing of loam has been hauled upon the old ground. The distances have been lengthened in some places and shortened in others, making playing much pleasanter, and the entire distance now is 2,475 yards; by holes, 1st, 350; 2nd, 220; 3rd, 440; 4th, 180; 5th, 356; 6th, 250; 7th, 330; 8th, 195; 9th, 155. The bogie, 38.

Base ball has begun and is arousing the usual interest, and sailing, fishing, bathing, hunting and autoing are combining pleasantly with social affairs.

Camden's Annual Tourney.

CAMDEN, S. C., February 12—The annual open golf tournament of the Camden Country Club booked for Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the coming week, is being looked forward to with keen interest.

Play begins Wednesday, one division of thirty-two qualifying, and continues through Saturday, the trophies including the Country Club cup, consolation cup, handicap cup, a qualification gold medal and cups for a best ball foursomes contest.

Next Week's Vogue.

The "Spring Announcement Number" of Vogue, beautifully illustrated, will appear in a striking colored cover on February 21st. The Spring styles in all their varied phases will be exhaustively dealt with in this sumptuous edition of the leading American exponent of smart dress.

The number will not be devoted to fashions exclusively, however, for it will contain articles regarding the stage, literature, house decorating, travel and other interesting topics. The fascinating novelties shown by the great Paris shops will be described in an entertaining article. An important feature will be a story entitled "The Terror by Night", by F. E. Benson, the author of the famous "Dodo"

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY.

Card Parties in Observance at The Inn, Berkshire and Magnolia.

St. Valentine's day was pleasantly observed with card parties at The Inn, Berkshire and Magnolia, the spirit of the day being apparent in decorations, score cards and prizes.

AT THE HOLLY INN.

The bridge party given by Mrs. David Fleming to a number of her friends was one of the features of the evening. The Dutch Room was very effectively decorated with dainty hand-painted valentines and hearts, and heart-shaped score cards were eagerly sought by guests after the play as souvenirs of a pleasantly-spent evening. Miss Edith McLeod, Mr. T. F. Baxter and Miss Alice Porter were the prize winners.

AT THE BERKSHIRE.

A progressive hearts party occupied the evening at The Berkshire. Dainty heart-shaped "home made" valentines were used as score-cards and the spirit of the day was carried out in the several prizes which were offered. Mrs. George Seyms, Mr. J. G. Nicholson, Mrs. Charles Sayles, Mr. T. W. Stillman, Mrs. W. G. Fowler and Mr. A. N. Blake being the prize winners.

AT THE MAGNOLIA.

A progressive euchre party was given at The Magnolia by Mrs. F. B. Pottle, Mrs. H. F. Thayer and Mrs. Chalmers Burn; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Oldring, Miss Ida Mack and Mr. Clemens Titzck winning the prizes.

Refreshments were served at the close of play, after which a vote of appreciation was extended to the hostesses of the evening.

Increase Your COTTON Values
Yields Per Acre Above Par

It is a well known fact that cotton, or any other crop, produced with Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers will bring the highest possible price on the market. Make healthy, strong, well-developed, early cotton, with full grown bolls on the fruit limbs at the base as well as all the way up to the very top and tip ends of the branches of the cotton plants, by liberally using Virginia-Carolina Fertilizers.

They contain all the materials necessary to supply to your land the elements which have been taken from it by repeated cultivation year after year. These fertilizers will greatly "increase your yields per acre." Accept no substitute from your dealer.
