QUALIFICATION PLAY KEEN

Rev. A. L. Squier Leads Field in St. Valentine's Tourney.

C. S. Cook, Jr., C. T. Crocker, Jr., and Harold C. Richard Finish Close up.

BIG FIELD of one hundred and ten players started in the qualification round of the St. Valentine's tournament, all but a few turning in cards, with keen play throughout.

Rev. A. L. Squier of Brae Burn, winner of the Midwinter tournament, led the field with a card of eighty-two, clean-cut duplicate rounds of forty-one each, with C. S. Cook, Jr., a clubmate, second and a stroke away with eighty-three, both players withdrawing because they could not remain through the week.

Next in line was C. T. Crocker, Jr., of the Alpine Club, Fitchburg, who made eighty-four, and close after him, Harold C. Richard of the Princeton University golf team, who scored eighty-five, with the balance of the field closely bunched; ninety-two marking the limit in the first division.

Rev. Mr. Squier's card was a pretty one in detail:

OUT—5 5 3 5 5 4 6 4 4—41
IN— 5 3 4 4 6 4 7 4 4—82.

STAMFORD GOLFFERS.

Special Medal Play Handicap for Wee Burn Club Men.

An interesting special feature of the St. Valentine's tournament was a medal play handicap arranged for the Stamford players in the contest, eight in number, for cups purchased by subscription and presented by Herbert L. Jillson, and offered for the two best net scores.

Dr. Schavoit struck an eighty-eight gait, capturing first with a net score of seventy-six, playing with a handicap of twelve, and the second trophy went to Ex-mayor H. S. Cummings who made eighty-one, playing with an allowance of ten.

The editor feels that the presence of so many golfers from one place and all members of the Wee Burn club, was a significant tribute to Pinehurst and he was glad to express his interest visibly.

Here's hoping this may be the "first annual" tournament of Stamford golfers! Next year's cup is ready!

Sporting Notes.

Rube Waddell has certainly laid down on his job. He hasn't rescued any fair maidens from ferocious sharks or figured in the Thaw case.

Racing at New Orleans has reached its zenith. From now on the feed man will have some care about extending credit.
