

ALEX ROSS BEATS NICHOLS

Thirty-Six Hole Match Play Contest Fast and Keen Throughout.

Rounds of Seventy and Seventy-two and Topped Drive Loses Nichols Opportunity to Tie Score.

MONDAY'S thirty-six hole match play contest between professionals Alexander Ross and Gilbert Nichols resulted in some of the fastest golf and the keenest golf ever seen here, the local "pro" redeeming honors lost in the recent foursome, defeating the visitor by one up on the home green.

Ross had a bit the best of it on the morning round, finishing two up at noon after a close match, but Nichols rallied in the afternoon, striking a seventy gait, evening the score on the twenty-first green and gaining a lead of two up on the twenty-fifth. Ross, however, was game taking the twenty-sixth, and evening the score on the twenty-ninth.

The next two holes were halved, Ross winning the long thirty-second in four, Nichols winning the thirty-third and again evening the score. A four gave Ross the thirty-fourth and the lead, the last two holes being halved, a topped drive undoubtedly losing Nichols an opportunity to tie the score on the thirty-sixth green.

One of the largest galleries in the history of golf here followed the match, many in carriages, on horseback, and there wasn't a moment when an important play was being made when, the dropping of a pin wouldn't have sounded like a pistol shot.

The purse was a big one, raised by general subscription.

FRED EMERSON BROOKS.

Poet-Humorist Booked for Third of Village Hall Series.

The third event in the entertainment program announced for the Village Hall, is the coming of Fred Emerson Brooks, the poet-humorist, upon Saturday evening, March second.

Mr. Brooks is a wonderful man, and a big house is assured. There is no passion or feeling that he does not portray vividly, nor dialect, nor sound of familiar animals that he does not imitate perfectly; but above and beyond all is a delightful personality and magnetic presence.

He is so commanding and graceful in his delivery that one cannot but be charmed, and one follows him from the humorous to the pathetic, the heroic to the dialect, from Palentine to Californis, with delight and pleasure. He is poet, orator and genius combined.

The entertainments thus far have proved delightful in every way and the program to come being full of promise. Following Mr. Brooks, upon March 15th, will be the star feature of the course, the appearance of Senator Tillman.

Tickets are on sale at the Department Store and Pharmacy, at fifty cents and one dollar.

Over five hundred dollars was cleared by the recent Bazaar for the Catholic church building fund, an amount far beyond the hopes of the most sanguine, and Rev. Fr. Kavanaugh desires to express through THE OUTLOOK, his sincere appreciation to all who contributed to the splendid success of the affair.

Among the many attractive features, the Valentine booth in charge of Mrs. P. J. Ward and Miss Marraud, was most timely.

Dear Mr. Cory:- In the recent championship tournament at Forest Hill, N. J. I used the Cory Golf Ball Marker for the first time and desire to state that on several occasions it prevented my ball being played by others and so, perhaps saved me the championship. I heartily endorse it and recommend it to all practical golfers. I noticed that it was used by nearly all the pro's in the tournament.

Yours sincerely,

Alex Smith,
Open Champion.
