

TRIANGULAR TEAM SHOOT

Local Pistol Club Shoots Telegraphic Matches and Does Well.

Portland Leads With 761 to 739 for Providence and 700 for Home Aggregation.

An interesting feature of the week was a triangular telegraphic team shoot between the local and the Portland, Maine, and Providence, Rhode Island, pistol clubs, the home aggregation making a creditable showing in face of unfavorable conditions, losing to Providence by a margin of 34 points and to Portland by 61.

Lowell Palmer Jr., of Brooklyn, D. Herbert Hostetter of Pittsburg, Herbert L. Jillson of Worcester, Edward O. Greuner of New Haven, and J. R. Shoaff of New York, shot for the home team; R. H. Crosby, F. Leroy, H. B. Chandler, Henry W. Stevens and F. R. Thomes were in line for Portland; and Edward Parkhurst, Arno Argus, H. C. Miller, Arthur C. Hurlburt and W. H. Willard represented Providence; the latter team allowing Pinehurst a handicap of 25 points and the former shooting what the Portland Club call "seventy per cent men."

The distance was twenty yards at the regulation United States Revolver Association target, twenty shots per man being fired, one hundred in all, or a possible 1000 score. The interest awakened will doubtless lead to other events of the same character.

ROOTERS TAKE NOTICE.

Monday's Base Ball Game is Red Hot from Start to Finish.

Monday's base ball game drew a big crowd and there was something on from the time the first player stepped to the bat until the last man retired in the seventh inning, The Carolina team winning from the Village by a score of 10 to 6, and a good deal of money changing hands as a result, for the friendly rivalry between supporters of the team nines has never been more marked.

The Village team started the ball rolling by cracking out four runs at their first try at the bat, failing to score again until the fifth when two runs were added. The Carolina got to going for one run in the first, four in the third, clinching the game with five in the sixth.

The teams included Finnegan, Aldrich, T. Pollett, Edson, Kimball, F. Pollett, Sylvester, Carlin and Ruggles for the victors and Morris, Connell, Smith, Campbell, Boyle, McAuley, Welch, Brown and Kiely for the losers, with Ruggles and Connell as the pitchers.

Birthdays Anniversaries Pleasant Feature of Week at Carolina.

Among the delightful affairs of the week at The Carolina was a late supper of twenty covers given Monday night by Mr. Fred Herreshoff, winner of the club championship tournament, in honor of his birthday which occurred during the tournament.

Another pleasant affair was a small dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Thayer of Boston, for Mr. Thayer's mother, Mrs. E. E. Thayer, upon the anniversary of her eighty-third birthday, Tuesday evening.

Miss Marjorie Phelps of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wattenberg of New York also gave informal birthday dinners.

Saddle Picnickers.

A merry company of saddle picnickers spent Saturday in the open, passing a delightful day, the start being made from The Carolina at eleven and the return late in the afternoon. In the company were Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Palmer, Jr., Miss Hazel Brown, Miss Marjorie Winants, Miss Helen Sousa, Miss Ethel Barroll, Miss Ruby Boyer, Mr. John Philip Sousa, Dr. Richard C. Ryan, Mr. David Leahy, Mr. Nathaniel Ferguson, Mr. A. M. Shute, Mr. R. S. Twitchell and Riding Master Everett.

In Bishop Cheshire's Honor.

Mrs. Leonard Tufts gave an afternoon tea for the cottagers in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Joseph Blount Cheshire, Saturday, which was most enjoyable. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson and Miss Mary M. Wilbur, who poured.
