THE WEEK AT THE HOTELS

THE flood tide of midseason continues to rise relentlessly, returning friends who are coming to enjoy the beauties of spring, and far-south tourists who are working northward, crowding in by every train and keeping the "house counts" of the hotels in the local system very close to their limit.

Never before has Pinehurst's international and increasing popularity been so forcibly demonstrated or a more congenial company of guests assembled. Made to order weather has been the rule and of pleasant diversion both indoors and out, there has been one continuous round.

At The Carolina.

With more than four hundred guests quartered beneath its hospitable roof, all of them upon pleasure bent, the week at The Carolina has been a brilliant round of pleasure with few dates upon the social calendar unoccupied, interest centering about the third Cotillon and numerous dinners and bridge parties.

At The Berkshire and Harvard.

The week at these two hotels has been one of the gayest of the season, among the pleasantest of numerous affairs being a programme of old plantation songs given by Miss Nellie A. Orbison on Monday evening, with banjo accompaniment and old Kentucky accent.

The Caddy band serenade, given in front of the hotel Tuesday evening afforded a rare treat and was responsible for a mirth provoking cake-walk given on the broad piazza by Mr. Harry Waldron and Miss Anna Kelly.

The regular weekly card party was a repetition of military euchre which made a hit several weeks ago, Mrs. Frank Mehaffey of Chambersburg, Mrs. E. C. Cormerais of Amesbury, Mr. T. W. Stillman of Chicago and Mr. C. C. McCord of Pittsburg, making up the winning team. Mr. Stillman carried off the lone hand or highest individual score prize.

AMONG THE GUESTS.
