BIG CROWD HEARS TILLMAN.

South Carolina Senator's Lecture Fills the Village Hall.

Senator Tillman's appearance at the Village Hall, Wednesday evening, attracted a large and appreciative audience which bestowed liberal applause.

The speaker's subject was his favorite one, the race problem, and while the argument was not new, it seemed different when heard from Tillman's own lips. In a word, the South Carolina senator thinks as he has always thought, that the only way to avert a race war in southern states where the negro has the majority in population, is to repeal the fifteenth amendment.

At present southern states have overcome this by making educational requirements a necessity in connection with the right to vote, but the time when the negro will push aside this barrier, Tillman says, is not far distant, and then trouble is bound to ensue. Further, when prophetic, Tillman can see the nation governed by the negro.

No matter how much one may agree or disagree with the southern senator, all are united in the belief that he is very much in earnest, and he impresses the non-partisan as a man with a mission and a vision.

SNAP AND GO THROUGHOUT

starting point, the event being ridden in heats, the first in winning. Mr. Loucheim, Miss Firth, Miss Milligan and Mr. Sayles went first, and Miss Higgins, Mr. Ferguson and Mr. Mundy second, finishing in the order given; Miss Firth, Mr. Loucheim, Miss Higgins and Mr. Ferguson riding in the finals; Miss Firth, Mr. Loucheim and Miss Higgins winning the ribbons.

Next in order was the water carrying contest, in which a lard pail uncomfortably full of "wet" water, was carried to the end of the track and back, the spilling of too much disqualifying, Miss Firth, Miss Higgins and Mr. Ferguson dividing the honors.

Last but not least was the always anticipated dummy race, in which grotesque creations were ridden to, picked up and brought to the starting point in a way that made the crowd hold its breath; Miss Firth, Mr. Loucheim and Miss Higgins winning.

The field of participants included Miss Pauline Firth of Boston, Miss Grace Higgins of New York, Mr. Charles Sayles of Brooklyn, Miss Milligan and Mr. J. F. Loucheim of Philadelphia, Mrs. Leonard Tufts of Boston, Mr. W. P. Mundy of Roanoke, and Riding Master Everett. Mr. Charles A. Clough and Mr. Richard E. Traiser of Boston, and Dr. George S. Hill of Marblehead, acted as judges and timekeepers.
