mistletoe emphasizing its meaning. During the entire day Pinehurst's guests were in the open rejoicing in fresh air and sunshine—upon the golf course, the tennis or roque courts; in the hunting field or driving and riding round about the Village—interest culminating in the evening dinners with The Inn as the central point round which everything radiated.

"GRASS WIDOWERS" DINE.

Among the jolliest of many parties was a dinner given to the "grass widowers" quartered at the hotel by Mr. M. D. Fink and Mr. R. M. Hamilton, the guests being Mr. John Philip Sousa, Mr. S. V. Blake, Mr. Leonard Ingersoll, Mr. S. T. Scattergood, and Mr. C. T. Dunham; merriment and good cheer reigning which all in the dining room enjoyed.

Among others who entertained were Mr. and Mrs. F. B. McLean, Mr. H. L. Goodrich, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. H. Ralph, Mrs. W. Hetherington, Miss Macleod and Miss Von Mater, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Condon.

Visitors Win in the Tie Play-off.

Dr. George G. Herr and Herman Kapitzke of Southern Pines, defeated Purchasing Agent Ward and Secretary Ellis, in a return team golf match early in the week, by four up and three to play, thus deciding the tie which resulted in the recent match on the visitors grounds.

Through these and other similar events, the employees of the two Villages are being brought together pleasantly.
