Midwinter and Advertising Tourneys Will Attract Big Fields.

Six Divisions Provided for in Each Tournament--A Wealth of Beautiful Trophies.

THE fifth annual Midwinter and Advertising Men's golf tournaments, booked for January 13th to 18th inclusive, promises a wonderful week of golf, a week which would be possible at no other resort in the world but Pinehurst. The entry list is already large and will, doubtless, exceed past records, fully one hundred and fifty players participating, among them a large number of cracks representing a wide range of territory.

SADDLE PICNICKERS.

Merry Company Spends Delightful Day at Black's Mills.

A merry company of saddle picnickers spent Tuesday at Black's Mills under the chaperonage of Mrs. Leonard Tufts and Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson, leaving the Village early in the morning, lunching beneath the pines and returning late in the afternoon.

In the company were Mr. and Mrs. I. H. D. Ralph, Mrs. Carolyn R. Durant, Mrs. Charles Sayles, Miss Ada Smith, Mr. F. W. Sparks, Mr. S. T. Scattergood, Master Charles Banes.

THE ADVERTISING TOURNEY.

A wealth of attractive trophies are offered in the Advertising Men's tourney, and there will be divisions in proportion to the entry list, not less than five sixteens, and possibly more, with four prizes in each division. A handicap will also be arranged for those who are dropped in the regular tournament, and a match play event for
