

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895, it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are bath rooms, electric lights, steam heat and open fireplaces. There is a call bell in every room, and all beds are furnished with best hair mattresses. An orchestra furnishes fine concerts daily, and also provides for dancing. The cuisine is unsurpassed. The waitresses are all white girls from the North. Rooms for billiards and other games are provided in the hotel.

HILLAND CREAMER WINNERS

Defeat Kellogg and Ormsbee on Home Green in Tie Play-off.

Gold and Silver Medals the Prizes in Novel "Combined Score" Four-some Handicap.

THE week, from a golfing standpoint, has been conspicuous for its novelty, easily a leader being the second event in the Tin Whistle tournament program; a four-ball foursome, medal play handicap contest, partners being assigned by lot and the combined net scores of each couple counting, the trophies were pairs of gold and silver medals offered for the two best net scores.

Dr. George S. Hill of Marblehead, with an allowance of 22, and A. I. Creamer of Damariscotta with a handicap of 9, and J. E. Kellogg of Fitchburg (13,) and H. W. Ormsbee of Brooklyn (12,) led the field tied at one hundred and sixty-seven; Dr. Hill and Mr. Creamer winning by a single stroke on the home green in a tie play-off Thursday afternoon. Two strokes away were H. G. White of Ridgewood, (7,) and R. M. Hamilton of Pelham, (12,) who made one hundred and sixty-nine. The trophies were gold and silver medals for the best and second best net scores. The cards:

THE MIDWINTER HANDICAP

Success Thus Early Assured for Big Trap Shooting Tournament.

Interest in the first annual midwinter trap shooting tournament, booked for January 23, 24 and 25, thus early assures a field of fifty or more participants, representing the crack trap shots of the country, making the occasion one of the most important of its character ever held in the south.

Details are in the hands of a handicap committee including men of national reputation, with George L. Lyon of Durham, N. C., as chairman, assisted by Dr. Edward F. Gleason of Boston, C. M. Powers of Decatur, C. M. Billings of Ocean Port, N. J., Joseph Hunter of Washington and Dr. J. I. Johnson of Raleigh.

The program includes all day shooting and numberless events, with one thousand dollars in added money and trophies, interest centering in the preliminary event and the handicap for which two splendid sterling cups and various medals which are offered as trophies.

Special rates will be in vogue at the various hotels ranging from $1.50 upwards, including board, and every effort will be made to make the occasion one of pleasure.

AN ARMY OF GOLFERS

From All Parts of the Country They Flock in for Next Weeks Events.

The advance guard of the army of golfers who will participate in the annual midwinter and advertising mens golf tournaments, which fill the coming week to the brim, arrived early in the week closely followed by others, the climax coming this morning, with the arrival of a special through Pullman train from New York, which also picked up delegations along the line. And the end is not yet, for every train from now up to and including Monday morning will bring additions.

MRS. RALPH'S GUESTS.

Afternoon Bridge Party for Women Delightful Feature of Week.
