OTHER EVENTS PLANNED.

Other similar contests are planned with the revival of the old-time league and its Village championship series very probable. In addition to the Village and Holly Inn teams, already formed, The Carolina will make up a team, and there is a possibility of one representing the guests.

MATINEE BOWLING.

Matinee bowling is interesting an increasing number of women, and many guests are availing themselves of the opportunity to reserve the alleys for private parties afternoon or evening, upon due notice.

One of the good strings of the week was a one hundred and fifty-one total made by Miss Anne Hay.

TIN WHISTLE TOURNAMENT.

(Concluded from page 1.)

Whistle Championship. Eighteen-hole qualification round, with gold medal for best score. Silver cup for winner of first sixteen and gold medal for runner-up. Gold medal for winner of consolation, first sixteen. Gold medal for winner and silver medal for runner-up of second sixteen. Silver medal for winner of consolation, second sixteen.

N. B.—Regular tournaments are open to members and will be played in the afternoon.

Mr. Presbrey High Gun.

Trap shooting is occupying increasing attention with the coming of the New Year, indicative of great popularity from now on.

One of the friendly contests of the week was an informal shoot between Frank Presbrey, R. C. Wilson, Henry Dreher and M. C. Smith, Mr. Presbrey winning with a margin of two targets and a score of 16, with Mr. Wilson and Mr. Dreher tied at 14, and Mr. Smith third in 12.

The scores:

Presbrey	11011-10111-11101-11011-16
Wilson	1101-11101-11010-11101-14

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy Return.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Murphy of Pittsburg, are at the Sycamore Cottage for the season and a return sojourn.

Mrs. D. O. Barr and Mr. Paul A. Barr of Pittsburg, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murphy.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Return.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Malcolm, Mr. James Verner Malcolm and Miss Anna M. Malcolm of Bethlehem, N. H., return and are welcome additions to the rapidly increasing cottage colony.

Resident Minister Here.

Rev. Alleyne Carleton Howell is here for the winter as resident minister, coming from St. Johns Church of Yonkers, N. Y. Services will be held regularly Sunday mornings at eleven.

Mr. Sayles and the Third.

Charles Sayles of Brooklyn establishes a new record for the third hole by landing his drive in a tree top, securing an air ship, and holing out in two! This beats the new auto hack to death.

Opening Hop Tonight.

The usual opening night dance takes place at The Carolina this (Saturday) evening, an occasion always anticipated by all with pleasure. A general invitation is extended to Village guests.
