PROVIDES NOVEL EVENING

SALMAGUNDI party provided a novel and unique evening's entertainment at The Berkshire; two hours being devoted to a melee of

"stunts" eight in number, ranging from making dolls out of potatoes to indoor putting. Prizes were offered to those who accomplished the work assigned them in the shortest possible time and most accurately, Mrs. W. T. Hyslop of Norfolk, and Mrs. F. H. Crary of Crawford, N. J., tying, Mrs. Hyslop winning on the draw, Miss Elizabeth Mercur of West Pittston, winning the consolation.

At the first table the trick was to make dolls out of potatoes and toothpicks, last of all making gowns and lingerie for them out of materials provided.

At table number two was button sewing, most attractive to the men (?) and at table number three a cracker eating contest, table etiquette being set aside to allow unlimited speed in the three minutes allotted and the assistance of water barred.

Table number four called for the transfer of a number of potatoes from beneath the table to the top by aid of a teaspoon and table number five was the extraction of elusive peanuts from a bowl by aid of flexible toothpicks.

At table number six skill was brought into play, few being able to jump small crackers from the palms of the hands into their mouths by a quick blow on the wrist.

Table number seven was needle threading with thread too large and eyelets too small, and strange as it may seem the men won the honors.

Last of all came indoor putting, not so easy as it looked, but a game more or less familiar to all; a fitting ending of an evening of merrymaking.

Other similar affairs are planned and eagerly anticipated, for The Berkshire has always made much of the entertainment feature, and Manager and Mrs. F. C. Abbe are thorough believers in it.

PISTOL SHOTS BEGUN.

Interesting Series of Handicaps Arranged for Tuesday Afternoons.

An interesting series of handicap pistol tournaments have been planned for Tuesday afternoons beginning next week, cups having been contributed by Mr. Porter and Mr. Jillson. In these special events no entrance fee or charge for targets will be made and it is hoped that the entry list may be a large one.

Entries should be sent to Dr. Hill at The Carolina on or before Monday evening at nine, each week.

Mr. Colquitt Takes Cup.

L. W. Colquitt of South Orange, N. J., was the winner of the Target Pistol Club's handicap cup shoot, scoring 391, and shooting with a handicap of 75. C. T. Dunham of Boston, (175) finished a close second in 382, with John E. Porter of Pittsburg (175) third in 342.

Tyler L. Redfield of New York, (75) scored 276, and Miss Ethel Check of New York, (175) 218; the event being 50 shots at the U. S. R. A. 20-yard target.

Jolly Welsh Rarebit Party.

Among the jolliest of the week's several informal spreads at The Carolina, was a Welsh rarebit party given by Mr. Edwin A. Freeman of Brooklyn, and Mr. P. S. MacLaughlin of New York. Covers were laid for ten, the guests including Mr and Mrs. Fred. Rueckheim, Miss Rueckheim, Miss Ada G. Smith, Mr. Willis Sharpe Killmer, Mr. Avery Hickey, Mr. W. G. Clark, Mr. Gilbert Nicholls.

Fifth Hole in One.

F. C. Robbins of Boston, holds a new record for the fifth hole which he made in one recently, playing in a four-ball match. The drive, when nearly spent, struck the foot of Master Jack Alley, who was just leaving the green with his father, caroming into the hole. The distance of the hole is two hundred and thirteen yards. Rather neat!

Mrs. Dreher's Guests.

Among recent pleasant informal dinners at The Carolina was one given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dreher of Cleveland, for Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ritchie and Mr. and Mrs. Ira A. McCormack, of New York, who are spending the winter in a cottage near at hand.

Ross and Jolly Win.

In a return match between Open Champion Alexander Ross and Professional Jack Jolly, and Gilbert Nicholls and W. G. Clark, the former pair made good to their recent defeat by winning out three and one.
