TO REVIVE ROQUE INTEREST.

Mr. W. C. Gompf Wants to Get in Touch with Devotees of the Game.

Mr. W. C. Gompf of Hartford, who is at The Berkshire for a long sojourn, is very much interested in bringing about a revival of roque playing, and the holding of a series of tournaments here, and would like to hear from all interested.

Several of the courts are being put in tournament order and matches arranged.

New equipment in the way of regulation arches, balls, mallets and rubber border have been telegraphed for and there is every indication that the sport will become one of the popular attractions here, both for participants and on-lookers.

Treat for Art Lovers.

The week was one of interest to art lovers, two exhibitions attracting attention and both held at The Carolina. Professor E. H. Osthaus showed a number of his dog pictures in both oil and water color, and Henry Plymton Spaulding, some forty water color landscapes, representing a wide range of subjects.

Trap Shooting Sweepstakes.

A series of trap shooting sweepstakes have been arranged for Monday afternoons, at three o'clock, to be held weekly throughout the season, and interesting events are assured. Enter by reporting at the traps.
