

BIG CROWD AT GYMKHANA

GOODLY portion of the Village turned out for Wednesday's Equestrian Gymkhana and there was fun and excitement for all from start to finish.

A large field of riders participated, zest being given to competition by the offering of prizes, first positions counting one hundred and second, fifty; the two highest totals winning for both men and women.

The program included several of the events most popular here, selected with care as to variety and novelty, and the introduction of seats for onlookers was an appreciated innovation.

First of all came the potato race in which five tubers were transferred across the ring, one at a time, by aid of pointed sticks; Miss E. Marie Sinclair of Boston, doing the trick handily in two minutes and thirty seconds. Mrs. Leonard Tufts of Boston, finished second in two-thirty; Miss Elizabeth Farrelly of Morristown, third, in two-thirty-five; Mr. E. B. Cole of Boston, fourth, in three-fifteen; Miss Ethel Graydon of Cincinnati, fifth, in three-forty; and Miss Milliken of Philadelphia, sixth, in three-fifty.

Next was a very pleasing number, an egg and spoon race for the youngsters, Masters Jack Mitchell, George, Peavey and Totten Hefelfinger, participating; Master Jack winning in thirty-three seconds, with Master Peavey second, two seconds behind.

The thrilling bow or pursuit race completed the ring events, Mrs. Tufts, Mr. N. S. Hurd and Mr. W. P. Mundy riding first; Mr. Hurd taking the bow from Mrs. Tufts, after a rattling chase of one minute and thirty-seven seconds. Miss Sinclair wore the ribbon next, Miss Graydon and Riding Master Herndon following; the latter ending the run in forty-five seconds. The third trio included Mr. Cole with the badge, Mr. L. G. Leonard of Syracuse, and Miss Farrelly following; the latter capturing the ribbon in just one minute; awards being made to the riders wearing the bow longest.

Track events completed the program, first of all coming the mail pouch or relay race, the course being a long one which gave a steeplechase character. Mr. Herndon, Mrs. John Philip Sousa, Mrs. Tufts, and Mr. Mundy rode first, winning in one minute, eighteen seconds. Just a seconds more time was required by Riding Master Buckley, Mr. Hurd, Mr. Jillson, Miss Farrelly and Miss Graydon; the team of four boys making the round in two minutes, ten seconds.

The lance and ring contest over a new and improved course, followed, hanging rings being pierced while riding at a gallop, time made and rings secured counting, Mr. Herndon winning with four rings secured in six seconds. Mr. Buckley was second with four rings in six and two-fifths seconds. Miss Milliken took three rings in eight seconds; Miss Sinclair, two in nine seconds; Miss Graydon, three in ten seconds; Miss Farrelly, three in twelve seconds; Mr. Hurd, three in seven and one-fifth seconds.

The fast scarf race was a pleasing ending, participants riding in couples to the end of the track and back, holding a handkerchief between them. Mr. Cole and Miss Farrelly led with a fast spin of twenty-eight seconds; Mr. Hurd and Mrs. Tufts making twenty-nine seconds; Mr. Jillson and Miss Sinclair thirty-two seconds, and Mr. Leonard and Miss Graydon, thirty-four seconds.

In totals Miss Sinclair led with two hundred points, Miss Farrelly finishing second with one hundred and fifty. Mr. Herndon and Mr. Hurd tied at one hundred and fifty; Mr. Herndon winning the draw.

The trophies were in excellent taste, contributed by Mrs. Leonard Tufts; two each for both men and women, and one for the boys.
