

MISS JULIA R. MIX WINS

ning the ninth to start home one up, increasing this lead to two up on the eleventh, the tenth hole being halved. Miss Mix took the fourteenth and fifteenth holes to even the score, Mrs. Chase gaining the lead again on the long sixteenth with a brilliant putt, the short seventeenth being halved in par three, and Miss Mix winning the eighteenth, five-six, to square the match. The nineteenth and twentieth holes were halved in fast fives, Miss Mix running down a long putt for a win on the twenty-first green.

Spring Days at Chase City.

Social pleasures indoors and out occupy the attention of Mecklenburg guests. The broad verandas are inviting places and here we see groups of congenial friends enjoying the sunshine, and the air perfumed with the odors of hyacinths, jonquils and violets, all of which are blooming in great profusion.

Mrs. B. P. Taliaferro entertained delightfully at the Club House Friday evening, those present including Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Edmunds, Miss Guerrard, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cooke, Mrs. W. P. Whittaker, Miss Louise Dixon, Mrs. Adolphus Blair, Mr. Jno. G. Sizer, Mr. S. Y. Taylor and Col. Westcott Robertson.

Mrs. Cora Robertson, a popular musical entertainer from London, gave a very delightful entertainment Friday evening, which was warmly applauded.

The Sunday concert was unusually enjoyable, those taking part were Miss Gladys Mitchell, Mrs. A. Blair, Miss Guerrard, Miss Simpson, Mrs. Cooke, Mr. C. L. Old, Mr. Paxton and others.

Although in the midst of a full-fledged spring season The Mecklenburg is quite alive to a sense of its importance as a far-famed health and pleasure resort, and extensive plans and preparations are being made to make the hotel for the coming summer more attractive than ever before. Dr. E. C. Laird of Hot Springs, N. C., a prominent and well known physician throughout the country, has accepted the position as head physician at The Mecklenburg. He was closely identified with this hotel when it was first thrown open to the public, and personally superintended the installation of the Baruch baths. Mrs. E. C. Laird is a very charming woman, and will be an acquisition to the social life here. April arrivals are adding many new faces.

MISS JULIA R. MIX.
