PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS WEEK

Dinners, Dancing and Merrymaking Will Round Out Holidays.

Usual Trees for Children of Vicinity Will be the Centre of Interest.

PLANS for a fitting observance of Christmas are occupying the attention of the Village and the entire week will be one of dinners, dancing and merrymaking, with interest centred upon the usual Christmas trees for the tree will be present both evenings. Rumor has it that this Santa Claus (there are, of course, more than one) still travels with reindeers of the pegasus variety; the dear old Santa Claus of fiction whose smile is a benediction and whose heart is overflowing with loving interest in little folks.

As usual the tree for colored children will be enjoyed by all of the Village guests, but invitations will not be extended to outsiders to attend the tree for white children.

Funds are being solicited by subscription with papers being circulated among the cottagers and at the hotels and the response has thus early been gratifying. In view of the fact that something more than two hundred dollars will be necessary, liberal additional contributions will be necessary on the part of hotel guests.

"IN THIS THE LAND OF HOLLY AND MISTLETOE."

white and colored children of the vicinity to be held Monday and Tuesday evenings of the week following in the dining room of The Harvard.

Details of arrangement are in the hands of the following committees who will select their own assistants: Purchasing of presents: white children, Mrs. Lucy P. C. Richards; colored children, Mrs. F. C. McNeil; candy and oranges, Mrs. G. Dan Morgan; collection of contributions, Mrs. H. W. Ormsbee; decorations, Mrs. P. J. Ward; entertainment, Miss Anne Hay; invitations, Mrs. W. C. Peet.

The program will be much the same as in the past, a monster Christmas tree of holly, radiant with garlands of pop corn, cranberries and tinsel and vari-colored electric lights. Santa Claus has positively promised to stop off on his way North and owing to the late date of the
