

VILLAGE CLUB MEETS.

New Members Admitted and Plans for Work Discussed.

At the weekly meeting of the Village Club, held in The Holly Inn Dutch Room, Wednesday afternoon, details of arrangement for the annual Christmas trees were completed and plans for the winter's work discussed.

The membership roll is growing rapidly, recent members including: Mrs. Henry B. Bates, Mrs. H. H. Cutler, Mrs. Lucy P. C. Richards, Mrs. Charles Blackburn, Mrs. J. A. Gamble, Miss Barrie Gamble, Miss Nell Gamble, Mrs. C. H. Horton, Miss Horton, Miss Alice King, Mrs. J. D. Osborne and Mrs. G. L. Wilson.

Work in connection with the annual Bazar is also progressing and a lecture by Mr. Warren H. Manning, the landscape architect, is promised.

KEEN JUVENILE GOLF.

Fast Play Rules Among Youthful Devotee of the Game.

Fast play rules among the members of the juvenile squad of golfers with Masters Richard Tufts and Russell Coleman in the lead, and Lincoln Cummings and Coryden Ashby close up.

Master Tufts best score is a fifty-one out and a fifty-four in, a total of one hundred and five; a fifty and fifty-six or a total of one hundred and six being Master Coleman's record.

Master Cummings records a fifty-nine and a sixty, one hundred and nineteen, and Master Ashby a sixty-six and seventy-one, one hundred and thirty-seven.

All Day Hunting Trip.

A merry party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Mallinson, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Ackerson, Mrs. G. A. Fairchild and Mr. E. R. Pooley spent Monday in the enjoyment of a "hunting picnic." A large hunting wagon took the party to the quail covers, the return being made in the late afternoon; the noonday lunch being the feature of the day.

Tin Whistle Trophies.

Some of the more important golf trophies to be contested by the Tin Whistles during the present season are on exhibition in The Holly Inn Dutch Room where they are being much admired. Cups, as in the past, predominate, but a pleasing innovation is noted in the way of articles of a useful character.

Saturday's Hop Enjoyable.

Saturday evening's hop at The Holly Inn was the most enjoyable of the season, many of the cottagers joining with the guests at the hotel, special interest being given by the introduction of the "Paul Jones" circle and the Virginia Reel. As usual Wednesday and Saturday evenings are set aside regularly for dancing.

WITH THE QUAIL HUNTERS.

Good Bags Continue the Rule in Local Covers.

Charles Lee Homer of Philadelphia, leads in the week's shooting records, with a string of fourteen quail, killed over his bench show champion, Don Gladstone.

H. B. Brundrett of New York, who comes for the winter, brings two fine dogs, Ranger and Bravo, with him and is much in the field, and William Bryce, Jr., of New York, is finding fine sport with Winn and Nell and Cornish Lass, the latter recently purchased from the local Kennels.

J. Hartford Chidchester of New York, and I. D. H. Ralph of Philadelphia, are among others who have made good bags.

Frank Presbrey of New York, brings Joe and has enjoyed good sport.

All Even at the Eighteenth.

A fast foursome match between Professional Donald Ross and Frank Presbrey, his brother, Alexander, and E. J. Spaulding, attracted a good crowd Wednesday, the cards being seventy-one for Donald and seventy-four for Alex., with a ninety for Mr. Presbrey and an eighty-seven for Mr. Spaulding; the match all square on the home green; its feature a 32 out for Donald.

C. A. Lockwood Leads.

Informal trap shooting sweepstakes are filling in the time in advance of the scheduled program, C. A. Lockwood of New York, winning in a recent event with a clean score which contained two twenty-threes, one twenty-two and an eighteen, a total of eighty-four in a hundred-target string.

MR. C. A. LOCKWOOD.

WINCHESTER

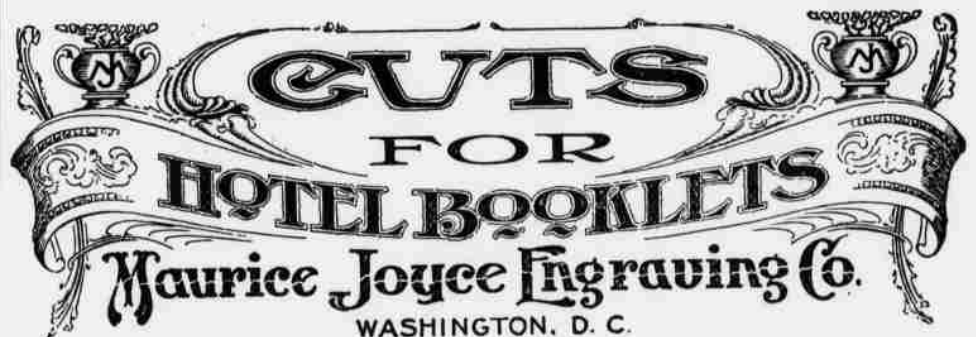

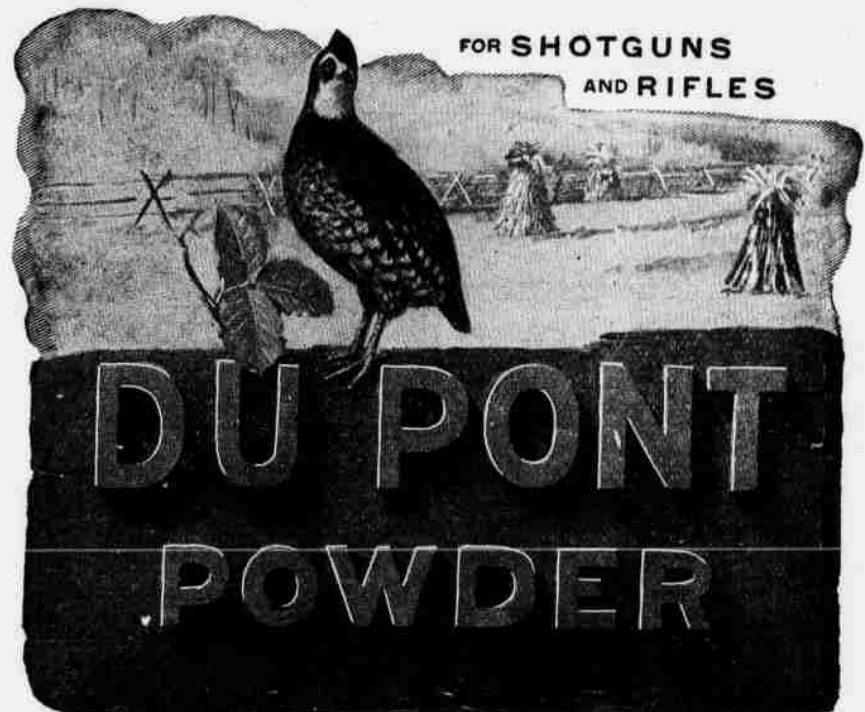

"BRUSH" SHELLS FOR BIRD SHOOTING

Winchester "Brush" Shells help wonderfully to make big bags. They are so loaded as to give an open and even pattern at ranges of from 25 to 30 yards when used in choke bore guns, without the loss of velocity, penetration or uniformity. With these shells you can use your duck or trap gun for field shooting and make many kills which otherwise would be misses. They are loaded in "Leader" and "Repeater" grades and sold by dealers everywhere.
