EASY FOR THE CAROLINA

TUESDAY'S baseball game attracted a big crowd and in spite of a somewhat one sided victory of 7-0 for The Carolinas over the Village, an element of uncertainty kept interest keen.

Eastman, who pitched for the winners, was easily the star of the day, and his twisters proved puzzlers when hits meant runs; his last season's "waist" ball still effective as was shown when three "goose eggs" were delivered in the fifth.

"Stogie" Lynch pitched a good game for the losers, but received poor support at critical stages owing to lack of organization which will come with more practice. Norris of the Carolinas was the base running expert and his mates were quick on their feet, infield and out. Cleary showed up well in the field on the Village team and Madden and "Mike" Lynch were very nifty with the ash twig; special features of the game were a triple play in the first inning by "Mike" Lynch, Bilodeau, Cleary and Fitzgerald, and the work of left fielder Dickinson.

It looked like runs for the Village in the first inning, but there was nothing doing. Lynch started the game with a grounder to second and was thrown out. Madden made first on an error and stole second, but Bilodeau fanned and Gladu fled to left.

Finnegan led off for Carolina with a hit and Norris bunted safe and it looked like runs, but Howard hit into a fast triple play, Lynch to Bilodeau, to Cleary to Fitzgerald.

In the fourth The Carolinas got to going. Dickinson got one in the ribs and scored on Edmonds clean two-bagger to left center, Coffin fled to center, and Finnegan grounded out. Norris scored Edmonds with a three-bagger to right and Howard hit to the pitcher for the third out.

In the fifth a couple of tallies were added with Eastman out on a grounder. Morris made first on Allen's error, De Roen was safe on "Stogie's" error, Cleary made a dandy catch of Dickinson's fly to short center, but Edmonds came along with the bingle, scoring Morris and DeRoer; Coffin was an easy third out.

The Village looked dangerous in the sixth, but Eastman showed them their error; with two out and the bases full, Mike Lynch came to the bat and, like "Casey" fanned.

The winners added three runs in the seventh, after Coffin and Finnegan had struck out. Norris drew a pass and scored when Howard reached first on an error. Howard stole second and scored when Eastman dropped a Texas leaguer in center. Allan muffed Morris' fly and Eastman scored. DeRoer hit safe to right, but was caught by Fitzgerald "asleep at his post."

Try as they would the losers could not score in the last two innings, the home plate playing tag with them until the last man was out.

Late additions to the Village team include Charles Gladu, a member of the White Mountain league who will be second pitcher and play third base.

Fred Bilodeau of the New England and Northern league is a new man at first base.

The second game of the week is in progress as THE OUTLOOK goes to press.

"Just Foh de Fun ob It."

Persistent Caddy—"Caddy foh you foh a quatah, sah?"

Non-golfer—"Naw, I don't want a caddy."

Persistent Caddy—"Caddy for fifteen cents, sah?"

Non-golfer—"Naw," as he swings at the ball, sends it two feet and a divot a dozen yards.

Persistent Caddy—"Caddy for yoh, sah, just foh de fun ob it!"
