

NECK AND NECK FINISH

"Somebody Else's Horse" Race Feature of Thursday's Gymkhana.

Lance and Ring, Scarf and Water Carrying Contests Round Out the Program.

THURSDAY afternoon's equestrian Gymkhana was easily the most novel and enjoyable of the season, characterized by snap and go throughout; novelties adding to the interest, several hundred people enjoyed the fun.

An even dozen riders participated, prizes being awarded for the highest total number of points made during the afternoon; first and second in each event, counting ten and five, respectively. Miss Grace Higgins of New York, and Mrs. John Phillip Sousa, won the women's prizes. Mr. J. F. Cassidy of New York, and Dr. Myron W. Marr of Dorchester, leading the men in a tie, Mr. Cassidy winning the toss. Others who participated were Mrs. Leonard Tufts; Miss Lillian Hungerford and Miss Grace Higgins, both of New York; Mr. F. B. Nostrand of New York; Mr. H. H. Kirkpatrick of Philadelphia, and Mr. Richard Southgate of Worcester, Mass. Details of management were in the hands of a committee including Mr. John Phillip Sousa, Mr. S. Bruce Elwell of Harvard, Mass., Mr. Converse Wurdeman of Milwaukee, Miss Harriet Horton of Williamsport and Miss Ruby Sewall of Kansas City.

Easily the novelty of the afternoon was the "somebody else's horse" race in which mounts were exchanged by lot, and ridden down the course and back, the last to finish winning, any horse coming to a standstill during the race, being disqualified. The result of the reversed order of things was most amusing and all sorts of tricks were resorted to to delay the progress of the journey, some crossing back and forth, others backing or side stepping. Not long after the turn had been made it was apparent that the contest lay between Mrs. Sousa and Mr. Southgate, which the former won in a thrilling finish, the animals neck and neck and both riders holding them back for all they were worth!

Snap and go characterized the familiar scarf race, the event ridden in couples against time, down the course and back, Dr. Marr and Mrs. Tufts leading in twenty-four and two-fifths seconds. Mr. Cassidy and Miss Hungerford, and Mr. Kirkpatrick and Miss Higgins, each made twenty-four and four-fifths seconds, but in the ride off, Miss Higgins, through trouble with her horse, exceeded the time limit.

The water carrying race was a new feature which created much amusement, contestants being required to carry a lard pail of water down the course and back at full speed, the spilling of too much disqualifying. Mr. Cassidy made the trip in nineteen seconds and Mr. Nostrand in twenty-one; Mrs. Tufts making twenty-two and three-fifths seconds and Miss Higgins twenty-seven. The lance and ring contest was fast enough to keep the crowd on edge throughout. Dr. Marr making the journey in twenty-nine seconds and securing five rings, Mr. Kirkpatrick bringing back four rings in thirty-four seconds. Mrs. Tufts took six rings in twenty-four and four-fifths seconds and Miss Higgins five in thirty-two seconds.

The interest aroused has led to plans for another event to be held Thursday next for which a large field is assured.
