

BAZAAR IS TUESDAY NEXT

Elaborate Decorations, Novelties and Surprises are Features.

Proceeds to be Devoted to the Fund for Education of Native White Children.

ANTICIPATED by the entire Village is the annual Rose Garden Bazaar of the Village Club booked for Tuesday afternoon next, in The Carolina music hall. For a year past various committees have been busy planning for the event which bids fair to surpass the brilliant Rose Garden fete of last year which netted over a thousand dollars for the Chapel Fund.

The special feature will be the decorations which are in the hands of Mrs. Lucy Richards, and which will transform the hall into a bower of radiant beauty. Round about the room will be numerous booths at which articles useful and otherwise, will be offered for sale and there will be numerous novelties and surprises, refreshments being served during the afternoon and evening.

At the fancy work and bag table are Mesdames Coleman, Oldring, Blake and Ormsbee and Miss Bruce. At the doll table, Mesdames Lard and Horton; at the baby table, Mesdames Priest and Jillson; at the apron and utility table, Mrs. McMillan and Miss Fiske; at the handkerchief and neckwear table, Misses Malcolm and Whitney; at the toy and grab table, Miss Gamble; at the flower table, Mrs. Morgan; at the candy table, Miss Beall; at the refreshment tables, Mesdames Splane, Spring and Stucki.

The Bazaar will continue through the afternoon and evening and not the least of its attractions will be the auction which always brings it to a close. Bargain hunters, however, should not wait for this event as prices are apt to run high as the auctioneer engaged is working on a "commission" basis.

Those desiring to contribute to any of the tables mentioned may send to The Carolina music hall not later than Tuesday forenoon.

The proceeds are to be devoted to an undertaking in which visitors are keenly interested, the School Fund which is devoted to the education of the native white children.

ABOUT NATIONAL SONGS.

am glad if they adopt it, but I don't want Congress to make the 'Stars and Stripes Forever' the national song by proclamation."

"If a man", concluded Sousa, "would come to me and say, 'I have proclaimed that you shall play my song' I would reply, please go to the devil. So it is with the people. Congress cannot say what songs the people of this country must sing."

WEEK OF MANY DINNERS.

Its Special Feature Spread Tendered by Mr. and Mrs. Hungerford.

The week has been one of many dinners, easily one of the most perfectly carried out affairs of the season being a spread tendered by Mr. and Mrs. U. T. Judge Joseph A. Burr of the New York Appellate court was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Truesdell of New York.

Mr. R. R. Cromarty of Toronto, entertained delightfully in honor of Mr. J. W. Smithy at dinner at The Carolina, Thursday evening, the guests including: Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Rodger, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Baillie, Miss Grace H. Baillie, Mrs. John H. Chesterman and Mr. Smithy.

Mrs. J. M. Hood, Jr., entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Phillip Sousa, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wattenburg, Mr. M. D. Fink and Miss Fink.

MR. J. TOWNSEND RUSSELL.

IF You see him along the barrel of a WINCHESTER 22 AUTOMATIC RIFLE HE'S YOURS!

THIS handy little ten-shot rifle, like history, repeats itself, the recoil being utilized to do the reloading. The novelty of its operation affords possibilities for practice and pleasure which no other "twenty-two" does. It makes an outing outfit complete.
