A Pinehurst Wooing.

(Written for The Outlook.)

It's breezes soft caress you
It's blue, blue skies enfold;
It's sweet bird notes allure you,
Back from the North-land cold.

It's jasmine flowers smile at you,
Greetings on every side;
It's open fields entreat you
To wander far and wide.

It's dim sweet aisles invite you,
While murmuring pine trees tall,
Whisper their loving message
Holding your heart in thrall.

The sunshine sheds its brilliance,
With warmth your heart it fills;
While Nature's sweet suggestions
Through all your being thrills.

It's moonlight brings enchantment,
When all its radiance rare
Makes earth a fairy garden
And you a captive there.

It's myriad stars watch o'er you,
Through peaceful nights of calm;
The freshness of its mornings
Lays on your heart its balm.

It's long fair days enrich you,
Under the arching sky;
An ardent wooer Pinehurst!
Yes—wooded, and won, am I.

Speaking of Golf.

(With apologies to Ella Wheeler Wilcox.)

(Written for The Outlook.)

"It's easy enough to be pleasant
When Life goes by with a song,
But the man worth while
Is the man who will smile
When everything goes dead wrong."

It's easy enough to be cheerful,
And look on with a "cheesy-cat" grin,
When the other man plunks
All his balls in the bunks,
And you tell him to swear is a sin.

And you say with a smile condescending,
And an air that is simply a bird,
"Now brace up, old fel!
That's a mere bagatelle!
I've done that myself, 'pon my word!"

Then you swell out your chest, nonchalantly,
And send a ball whizzing through space,
It lands in the mud
With a dull, sickening thud—
And you cuss everything on the place.

And then, with disgust past expression,
You take up the same old refrain,
"Oh, bother! (?) Oh, whew! (???)
What's the use—I'm all through!"

Then you start in all over again!

RECORD FIELD ASSURED

HE tournament committee predicts that the entrance list for the fifth annual Spring Golf Tournament, booked for March 17, 18, 19 and 20, will break all existing records, surpassing even the third annual St. Valentine's tournament in which one hundred and sixty-seven players started and one hundred and fifty-one attested cards were turned in.

Play begins Wednesday, March 17, with a qualification round in which a gold medal is offered for the best score; the President's, Governor's, Secretary's, Treasurer's, Captain's and Club cups being offered to the match play winners in five sixteens with trophies for the division runners-up and consolation division winners. There will also be two or three additional or special sixteens, after the usual custom, if the field warrants it.

The seventh annual United North and South Amateur Championship for Women is booked for March 24, 25, 26 and 27, and the ninth annual men's event

Carolina Defeats Inn.

A women's team match confined to the Silver Foils, between The Carolina and The Holly Inn, was a novelty Saturday, the "hill" delegation winning 4 to 3, on the "a point for the match" system. The scores:

Mrs. St. John Smith	1	Mrs. West	0
Mrs. Converse	0	Miss Check	1
Miss Shanley	1	Miss Looker	0
Mrs. Dana	1	Mrs. Byrnes	0
Mrs. Stone	0	Mrs. Faber	1
Mrs. Gardner	1	Mrs. Check	0
Mrs. Beall	0	Mrs. Waterhouse	1
	4		3

Special Tin Whistle Handicap.

A special medal play handicap arranged by Tin Whistles, is in progress as THE OUTLOOK goes to press, for which the following trophies have been provided: Case of razors, I. S. Robeson; box of balls, Jack Jolly; two clubs, D. J. Ross; cut glass tobacco jar, Wm. C. Lester; clock, Wm. Cummings; two gold medals, by the Club.

"There's music in the air," remarked John Philip Sousa at The Carolina the other morning, "no doubt about it," and picking up a pen, jotted down the following:

what the wind says at Pinehurst

John Philip Sousa

"While resting from my ride this morning, I became conscious of an ever recurring theme, made by the wind as it whistled through the pines, which I gradually interpreted in the form I have given you."

will fill in the time from March 29 to April 3, inclusive.

The fifth annual Club Championship is booked for Wednesday, Thursday Friday and Saturday of the coming week, with thirty-six hole qualification and final rounds.

BRIDGE EXPERTS AT THE INN.

Players of National Reputation are Quartered There.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Eberhard Faber and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Waterhouse are enjoying their daily bridge at The Inn with their friend Mr. C. L. Becker. Mr. Faber played on the New York whist team with Messrs. Taylor and Elwell, and Mr. Becker plays on the Boston whist team. Messrs. Faber and Becker have each, separately, several times won the "pair championship" of the country.

Mrs. Waterhouse with her partner, Miss Taylor of Boston, has three times won the Philadelphia trophy in the Women's League. Mrs. Waterhouse is president of the Women's Whist League of America.

Mixed Foursome Team Match.

A mixed foursome team match between The Carolina and The Holly Inn with a medal play handicap in connection for prizes contributed by Mr. and Mrs. J. Eberhard Faber for the two best net scores, has been arranged for Saturday; the entrance limited to members of the Silver Foils and Tin Whistles.

Special Pocket Pistol Event.

A new feature has been introduced in connection with the annual U. S. R. A. State Championship pistol shoot in the way of a special competition for pocket pistols. Should the interest be sufficient, an event of this character will be held here in connection with the coming contest.

Christian Science Service.

The friends of Christian Science will meet for the reading of the lesson Sunday next at 3 p. m., at Christian Science Chapel on Maine avenue, near East Broad street, Southern Pines. Subject of the lesson, "Man." All interested are cordially invited to attend.
