

THE GREEN CIRCLE GOLF BALL

The Green Circle Golf Ball made a wonderful record during the year of 1909. The Open Championship of the United States was won with it, and in a great many tournaments throughout the year the winners found The Green Circle to be the most accurate ball for driving, approaching and putting.

FIRST GYMKHANA TUESDAY

Program on Lines Which Will Interest All Classes of Equestrians.

Event Generally Anticipated and Interest Keen as is Evidenced by the Donation of Special Trophies.

THE first of the equestrian Gymkhana's is announced for Tuesday afternoon next, the program varied and entertaining with events for all classes of riders. Never has the interest been more general, as is evinced by the fact holding a scarf between them race to a point and back.

V. C. RACE—Competitors ride to a certain point, pick up a dummy figure and return to starting point. Handicap will be given as to how the dummies may be picked up, so as to equalize the ladies chances.

DOUGHNUT RACE—Competitors race to a given point, eat a suspended doughnut without using hands, and return.

RIDING TANDEM—Ride one horse driving another in front. Style and horsemanship only to count.

JEU DU RUBAN—Two riders try to remove a ribbon from the shoulder of a third. The riders taking the ribbon may only use the hand furthest from the rider carrying the ribbon. Each of the three may in turn carry the ribbons two minutes for each heat.
