

The Gorham Co. Silversmiths

IN the finer grades of Sterling Silverware there is but one standard—that which has been established by The Gorham Company. Gorham Silverware exemplifies a certain elegance of design and quality which has never been equalled by any other maker, while the prices are no greater than those of far less meritorious wares.

This Trade-mark identifies every piece of Gorham Silverware, which may be procured from responsible Jewelers everywhere.

THE LAST PAGE of an interesting book lays before us—the closing days of the season of 1909-10—and reluctantly we linger over the final paragraph while memory recalls the incidents which have held us captive as the hours have flown. Not a dull chapter has there been, each containing some delightful surprise, some new experience, some pleasant association, always backgrounded by glorious sunshine and murmuring pines. Many characters have passed before us, some but glancing and moving on, others lingering for a time, and a few leaving a permanent impression upon our lives, but human interest in each and all. Surely the volume has been one we are glad to have read and shall anticipate reading again, always finding new interest in the familiar pages, for treasured experiences are like good books—rare, rare indeed!

THE PRESENT is the closing issue of the season, a season in which THE OUTLOOK has shared the success of the Village, for the paper is but a mirror reflecting things as they are. We are frequently told that THE OUTLOOK is a "remarkable paper" and while this is gratifying, we fully realize that Pinehurst is a remarkable place; and that the success of both are dependent upon the interest of friends.

The sincerest indication of our appreciation, therefore, are thanks, for our best work is always done for others; those whom we feel appreciate and understand.

THE SEASON has in many important particulars, been the most notable in the entire history of the Village, not alone from the standpoint of success, but of achievement as well. More visitors have been entertained than ever before—both old and new friends—sports have never been more popular, social affairs more general and elaborate, growth along all lines more marked, pointing out clearly the Pinehurst of the future—the PINEHURST not alone of America, but of the WORLD!
