

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895 it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are many suites with private bath, steam heat in all rooms and open fireplaces in foyer and parlors. Music is furnished for concerts and dancing and the Holly Inn ball-room is one of its attractions. The cuisine and service excel. White girls from the North are employed as waitresses. The Holly Inn offers an attractive home to pleasure seekers from November to May.

FOX HUNTING BEGUN

Mr. and Mrs. Twitty Open Season With Preliminary Working-out Chase

Pack is Running Beautifully and Music is Good to Hear. Three Hunts Weekly the Program

THE fox hunting season swung wide open during the week when several enthusiasts joined Mr. and Mrs. James T. Twitty of Buffalo, in a preliminary or working out run which promises much for the weeks to come. Reynard, however, was crafty and assisted by unfavorable trailing conditions, gave the pack no opportunity to locate other than portions of his nocturnal ramblings. The hounds, however, are in the pink of

George H. Crocker Plays Brilliant Golf in Four-Ball Match

A four-ball match between George H. Crocker of Fitchburg, playing with professional Donald J. Ross, and Lieut. Gov. L. A. Frothingham of Mass. with professional Alexander Ross, occupied the attention of a big golf gallery Monday the former pair winning by four-up with a best ball of sixty-six.

Mr. Crocker was the star of the afternoon with a card of seventy-three, thirty-three out and forty in. On the third green he took five for an easy three-hole, and on the fifteenth and seventeenth he was one over bogey; otherwise brilliant golf which is rarely surpassed here, long putts on the fourth and eighth each saving a stroke. The course record going out is thirty-one, and a par three on the third, would have equalled it.

Lieut. Gov. Frothingham was playing a fast and consistent game, scoring a par seventy-nine, thirty-nine out and forty in, but his partner, Alex Ross, turned condition, coming fresh from a long series of kills at Warrenton training quarters and running beautifully with music that is good to hear as it rises from valley or rings down from hillside.

An amusing incident of the morning was the discovery of a 'possum which had no time to get away and promptly "died," but when the ruse proved futile, became very much alive. For a time he was carried along by the convenient method of the tail, but finally released.

Three hunts a week is the program and the invitation general. In the field with Mr. and Mrs. Twitty were Mr. and Mrs. I. N. A. James, Mrs. Leonard Tufts, Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson, Dr. Myron W. Marr, Mr. F. W. Foster and Riding Master C. G. Taylor.
