

THE HOLLY INN

PINEHURST, N. C.

The Holly Inn is one of the most attractive hotels in the South. Since it was built in 1895 it has been necessary to enlarge it several times to meet the constantly increasing demand. The interior is elegant, cheerful and tasteful. No modern convenience is lacking. There are many suites with private bath, steam heat in all rooms and open fireplaces in foyer and parlors. Music is furnished for concerts and dancing and the Holly Inn ball-room is one of its attractions. The cuisine and service excel. White girls from the North are employed as waitresses. The Holly Inn offers an attractive home to pleasure seekers from November to May.

MOONLIGHT FOX HUNTING

Novelty Attracts Large Field and Results in Exciting Chase

Sir Reynard Also Surrenders Brush on Two Previous Runs and Enthusiasm Mounts Upward

THREE HUNTS and a moonlight chase have made the week a busy one for fox hunters; the latter a novelty which called out a big field of riders, few of whom, however, saw the finish. The night was perfection and the fun began early with snappy trailing. Shortly after "Star's" clear voice "harked the

In Memory of Bill Nye

Through the efforts of North Carolina newspaper men subscriptions are being solicited to erect a "Bill Nye Memorial Building" at the State Reformatory costing not less than $10,000, as a factor in making good citizens of the State's errant boys. Contributions should be sent to J.P. Cook, treasurer of the Committee, at Concord, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Redfield Return

Mr. and Mrs. Tyler L. Redfield of New York, opened their splendid bungalow early in the week and will remain until spring. Miss Rockwood is again spending the winter with them.

Big Week of Tennis

Interest and entries promise a big week for the first annual Midwinter Tennis tournament which starts Monday.

pack" and the race to the death was on.

A mad one it proved for reynard seemed to enjoy the novelty and laid out for distance before a long series of circles and doubles. At midnight the situation had changed but little and the party turned homeward leaving Master Twitty and Huntsman Nat in a pursuit which lasted until the first grey streaks of dawn heralded the kill.

Other hunts during the week resulted in a brush for Mr. Albert Delaplante of Buffalo, who dismounted from his horse and rushed through four feet of water at Nick's Creek which the fox was swimming when the hounds caught him. At the second, honors went to Mr. R. W. Cauchois of New York, after a long race and many exciting jumps. Others in the field were Mr. and
