BIG GAME CARTRIDGES

"A Kill in Every Cartridge" is the UMC achievement—a standard of certainty possible only as a result of UMC experience, UMC development, UMC progressiveness, resources, facilities, individual skill and care.

It is the knock-down-killing-power and unequalled mushroom expansion that are always there, in 100% of the UMC Cartridges, that make them the invariable ammunition choice of real big-game shooters, who best can appreciate big-game hazards. Their preferences differ in rifles, but unite on UMC Cartridges.

Try the new UMC Hollow Point Bullet—the greatest mushroomer yet devised—more shocking and killing power than is afforded by any other bullet.

"Lesmok" powder .22's—our newest cartridge for small game and target shooting.

UMC Guarantee—Note our guarantee on every box, which not only guarantees the cartridges but also Standard arms to the full extent of the maker's guarantee.

W. C. Fownes, Jr., Also Wins Chief Trophy in Mid-April Tourney

Henry C. Fownes Leads in Qualification and Extra Hole Matches Add To Interest of Play

WILLIAM C. Fownes, Jr., not only regained the "championship" of America's foremost family of golfers in the third annual mid-April golf tournament, but won the chief trophy as well; his final round with Prestley S. Maclaughlin of Wykagyl, whom he defeated five and four, interest, however, centered in the semi-final round where father and son met, but the champion rounded the turn in thirty-four to thirty-nine for his father, with the match well in hand. Game, however, the father took the tenth, halved the next three holes and won the fourteenth, to lose the fifteenth and the match, five and three. The cards:

W. C. Jr.,—4 4 3 4 3 5 4 4 3—34
 H. C.—4 5 3 5 4 5 5 3 5—39
 W. C. Jr.,—4 3 4 4 8 5 * * *
 H. C.—5 3 4 4 7 6 * * *

In the second round the winner advanced on default of A. H. Findlay of Dyker Meadow, and in the first, he defeated Leslie D. Pierce of Brae Burn, eight and six. Mr. Maclaughlin's semi-final was a four and three win from W. L. Milliken of Indianapolis; his second, two up, from P. L. Lightbourn of Bermuda; and his first, six and four, from E. A. Schmidt of Beaconsfield.

N. S. Hurd of Oakmont, won the consolation on default of his father, William L. Hurd, and Dr. H. C. Perkins of Lowell, who was not in form in qualification, went down through the second division easily defeating O. B. Wickham of Cleveland, six and four, in the final. Rev. T. A. Cheatham of Salisbury, won the consolation from Mason Evans of Mahoning, four and two.

The match of the tournament was a twenty-two hole battle between J. V. Hurd of Oakmont and J. E. Kellogg of Alpine, in the first match round, which the Pennsylvanian won. At the turn Mr. Kellogg was one up and he had increased the lead to two up on the twelfth, the tenth and eleventh halved. The pair split even on the thirteenth and fourteenth and Mr. Hurd evened the scores on the sixteenth. The next five holes were halved and the twenty-second was Mr. Hurd's, five—six. In the second division R. C. Shannon, 2d, of Brockport, defeated J. E. Pushee of Brae Burn, on the nineteenth green, and O. B. Wickham of Euclid, halved an approach from the pit guarding the home green, for a win from Cabot J. Morse of Wollaston.

In qualification H. C. Fownes was first with a card of seventy-seven, remarkable because it might easily have been reduced ten strokes:

OUT—5 4 3 5 2 4 5 4 5—37
 IN—4 4 5 5 5 4 5 3 5—40—77

Bunched in a triple tie for second place at eighty-two, were W. C. Fownes, Jr., L. D. Pierce and A. H. Findlay; ninety-six marking the limit of admission to the first division. The field of contestants numbered forty-one, two match divisions qualifying.
