THE BEST AID TO A HIGH SCORE THE SMITH & WESSON

Single Shot Target Pistol

The S. & W. target pistol with automatic shell ejector, rebounding lock, and adjustable target sights, is the final triumph in the production of a thoroughly accurate target pistol. Its recommendation by the committee, and its wide use by experts are significant testimony to its high-score efficiency. The .22 long rifle cartridge gives the best results with this arm, but it is also bored for the regular S. & W. .32—10—88 and .35—16—146.

This monogram appears on all genuine Smith & Wessons.

SIR REYNARD IS THE WINNER

As Tribute to His Craft and Cunning
Master Twitty Calls Off Pack

Again and Again Clever Ruse Distances Pursuers and Gains Long
Lead for Pursued

SNUGLY ensconced in warm bed after a "night of it," Sir Reynard's welcome upon the largest of the week's fox hunts, was anything but cordial. When first disturbed by the clear shrill strike cry, he quietly log-hopped for a comfortable distance and swung far and free; without doubt, finding great enjoyment in the fact that he had succeeded in giving his disturbers the impression that he was concealed in the immediate vicinity, thus gaining a long lead. In due time, however, a stray

FIRST TIN WHISTLE TOURNAMENT

Hunter, Johnson and Beach Lead

Robert Hunter, Wilbur C. Johnson and Chisholm Beach divided honors in the opening Tin Whistle Tournament, a medal play handicap, on Monday. Mr. Hunter in 41-39-80, with a handicap of four was first in seventy-six; Mr. Johnson 43-42-85, with a handicap of eight, was second in seventy-seven, and Mr. Beach, 39-43-82, with a handicap of four, third in seventy-eight; the trio leading the field with good margins.

member of the invaders picked up the running trail and the race was on.

Straight away the chase led over hill and through swamp for some three miles, then swinging back, Reynard crossed and doubled on his old trail and swept on through gulley and across creek, to the trampled Dairy yard where following was well nigh impossible, and the hunt would have undoubtedly ended if Reynard had hidden. But here once again, an inquisitive member picked up the departing trail on its way to the golf links, and the music rose in a wild murmur to vanish in the distance on a wide circle back to the starting point.

Again and again clever ruse distanced the pack until Master Twitty, in tribute to this master of craft and cunning, called in the hounds; baffled but by no means convinced that the incident was closed or brief acquaintance at an end.
