

MATCH PLAY ROUNDS KEEN

Extra Hole Contests Provide Thrills in Holiday Tourney

MATCH PLAY in the Holiday week tournament provided plenty of thrills for the gallery in numerous extra hole matches with no less than seven of these in Friday's play, and a sufficient sprinkling throughout the entire contest to provide a variety of diversion. Figuring in twenty-one and twenty-three hole matches, Arden M. Robbins in spite of defeat in the final, was easily one of the stars of the week, dividing honors with young Fillemore K. Robeson who captured the President's Cup Consolation as the result of two nineteen-hole wins. Competition was by no means confined to the contest for the chief trophy as will be noted by the attached summary, four nineteen-hole, one twenty, and one twenty-one hole contest adding zest to play in the fourth and last division.

THE ADVERTISING TOURNEY

Biggest Meeting Ever Held by the Association is Assured

What promises to be one of the most successful golf tournaments ever held by the Advertising Golf Association will take place at Pinehurst, N. C., during the week of January 15, 1912. W. E. Conklyn, Dunwoodie, who is chairman of the Transportation Committee, has arranged for a special train to leave New York on Friday evening, January 12. There will be a number of novel and interesting events besides the usual championship events and the tournament will cover a whole week of golf.

W. C. Freeman, of the Dyker Meadow Club, is chairman of the Tournament Committee and will be assisted by R. M. Purves, of the Woodland Golf Club, Boston, Mass.; Richard R. Mamlok, of Fox Hills; E. M. Hoopes, Wilmington Golf Club, Wilmington, Del., and Willis R. Roberts, Bala Country Club, Phila.

It has been decided that all members of the American Golf Association of Advertising Interests, the Western Advertising Golf Association, the Metropolitan Advertising Golf Association, the New England Golf Association of Advertising Interests and the Cleveland Golf Association shall be eligible to compete in the tournament. Sixty prizes are offered for competition.—New York Herald.

WINCHESTER

Repeating Shotguns.

A Winchester Take-Down repeating shotgun with a strong shooting full choke barrel suitable for duck or trap shooting, and an extra interchangeable modified choke or cylinder bore barrel for field shooting lists at only $42.00. The retail price is less. This combination places practically two guns within reach of all sportsmen's pocketbooks. Winchester repeating shotguns are not only safe to shoot but sure to shoot. They are easy to load or unload, easy to take down or put together, are well made and reliable in operation. That's why the U. S. Ordnance Board endorsed them as being safe, sure, strong and simple. Over 450,000 satisfied sportsmen are using them. They are made in 12 and 16 gauges and list at from $27.00 to $100.00.
