FOX HUNTING

MONDAY, Wednesday and Friday; starting from stable at 7.30 A. M.

STARTED TWENTY-NINE COVIES

Messrs. Robeson and Swan Lead Quail Hunters in Week's Sport

I. S. Robeson and F. H. Swan led in the week's shooting records, starting twenty-nine covies at Eagle Springs Tuesday and bagging twenty-three.

David Gregg, Jr., secured fifteen from fourteen covies, a kill which he has equalled on two previous occasions.

A. B. Alley and W. H. Browning are among others who have enjoyed excellent sport.

That's the song of the trap, and its rhythm brings supreme pleasure to every devotee of the great American sport.

TRAP SHOOTING

The most healthful and fascinating sport on earth. Makes a strong appeal to the man and woman with red blood in their veins. Affords all the pleasurable excitement of hunting without its attendant discomforts and regrets. Keeps the experienced hunter from getting rusty and soon turns the novice into an expert shot because of the opportunity for regular practice.

Trap shooters are the best of fellows, and the good natured competition gives an added zest to the lure of the gun.

If you're already a trapshooting enthusiast, of course you're using one of the old reliable DuPont brands of Smokeless Shotgun Powders.
