Putting and Approaching

Among the special events, putting and approaching was generally enjoyed. Among the women Mrs. W. L. Crocker and Mrs. W. C. Freeman were the prize winners in the former and Miss Ruth French and Mrs. J. P. Gardner in the latter. C. C. Vernam and Leonard Tufts won the men's putting and John J. Hazen and L. A. Hamilton the approaching. In combined score approaching and putting, Mrs. George C. Dutton, Miss Gertrude Pickhardt, and Miss M. Eleanor Freeman were the prize winners. The continuous putting competitions were won by W. R. Hotchkin and G. T. Hodges, Mrs. W. G. Bird and Mrs. W. F. Smith.

Mrs. Smith Wins Bogey Handicap

In a special bogey handicap Mrs. W. F. Smith led the field, one up, with Miss Freeman and Miss Maule tied for second, even up. Mrs. Crocker was two down, Miss Pickhardt three down, Mrs. Gardner and Mrs. Dutton, each four down, Mrs. Hawley five down, Mrs. Freeman six down, Mrs. Hodges seven down; Mrs. Bird and Mrs. Carlisle, nine down.

UNCLE TRIES A DRIVE

Makes Green at 240 Yards but, Unfortunately, Misses the "Durned Pin"

He was from the country, that was apparent in his natural curiosity. "Don't you want to try it, uncle?" quired Mac, very obligingly teeing up a brand new 'jack rabbit.'

The idea rather pleased him. He had played base ball in his younger days and it was evident that he liked the feel of the club. The flag some two hundred and forty yards away was pointed out in explanation.

Uncle's form wasn't particularly good, if compared with Evans, but he had the motive power all right and he hit that ball a good deal as Gill Nicholls hits 'em, and he hit it just right.

Somewhat excitedly he dashed down the course towards the green. Six inches at the left of the flag the ball lay. "Dod gast it," exclaimed uncle with a look of chagrin upon his weather beaten face, "Durned if I didn't miss ther blamed pin after all!"

Z. T. MILLER IS THE WINNER

Full qualification scores and match play summaries are printed on pages four and five, with scores in Scotch four-somes and bogey handicap upon pages eight and nine. In addition to the championship trophy, Mr. Miller also has his name inscribed upon the special gold loving cup presented by Mr. John Wana-maker. "Here's to 1913!"
