

WAS A PLEASANT PROPHECY

First of Season's Card Parties at The Inn Provides Delightful Evening

The first of the more formal card parties at The Holly Inn proved most delightful, a pleasant prophecy for the series which it inaugurates. Ten tables in all were necessary, bridge and auction leading in popularity with one table each of whist and five hundred.

High score prizes were won by Mrs. W. C. Belcher and Mr. W. H. Herbst. Mrs. C. H. Halsey won the prize for the highest score of the evening and Mrs. M. J. Leo for the highest bridge total. At the five hundred table Mr. William E. Ewald and Mrs. Lee Thurman were the prize winners.

Among others participating were: Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Ewald, Mr. and Mrs. Halsey, Mr. and Mrs. Mc Feeley, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. Leo, Mr. and Mrs. Heigho, Mr. and Mrs. Lucking, Mr. and Mrs. Rackham, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Meses. Relyea, Micou, Belcher, Garther, Van Ostrand, Shannon, Thurman Wight, Phillips and Haskell and Messrs. W. A. Johnston, E. A. Johnston, McGregor, Micou, Campbell, Chandlee, Clark, Livingston, and Woodman and Miss Baird.

EASY FOR THE COLONEL

Silver Foils Are no Match for Him in Handicap Competition

A bogey handicap provided an interesting contest for the Silver Foils and the Colonel had things pretty much his own way, Mrs. R. C. Shannon with a handicap of twenty-three winning the prize offered by Miss Mary Fownes, 1 up. Miss Gwendolyn Cummings, (29) Miss Hazel Shannon (27) and Miss Mary Fownes (0) were each 2 down, Miss Agnes Blancke (38), 4 down, Miss Lucy Priest (26) and Mrs. Edward Worth (18) 7 down; and Mrs. H. F. Gurney (32) 7 down; Mrs. M. V. Rae, (26) 9 down; Miss Margaret Blancke (24) 10 down; Miss Lippincott (24) 1 down and Miss Stone (2) 13 down. Mrs. T. J. Check, (30), Mrs. I. S. Robeson (30), Mrs. W. S. Waters (38), and Mrs. C. N. Phillips, (11) and Mrs. R. C. King (2) did not turn in cards. Mrs. J. A. Maxwell (18) 6 down.

Miss Fownes Wins Putting

A putting competition for prizes presented by Mr. F. G. P. Barnes was an interesting feature of the week; Miss Mary Fownes winning first, Mrs. West second, and Mrs. Haskell third. Other participants included Meses. King, Phillips, Banes, Shannon and the Misses Cummings and Van Ostrand.

Guests of Mrs. Priest

Mrs. H. W. Priest was hostess at luncheon Thursday, covers being laid for ten and the guests including: Meses. Jones, Sinclair, Moat, Ingersoll, Tufts, Smithers, Rumsey, Truesdell and Sheppard.

Many Enjoy Riding

The number riding is very large, Riding masters Taylor, Sankey and Smith all busy. Many are driving also with plans for the usual equestrian gymkhanas during the coming weeks.

SOLOS BY MR. CHILD

His Appearance at Orchestral Concerts is Announced

Announcement of the engagement of Mr. Parker Child, a Boston tenor, by the Pinehurst orchestra is received with general pleasure by the music lovers and his frequent appearance during the remainder of the season is anticipated. Mr. Child was for four years soloist at St. Stephen's Church in Boston, and for six years past has been prominent in various choral festivals and oratorical concerts throughout New England.

He is a pupil of Wahlberg and Alberti Randegger for voice and breathing, and of Sir John Gilbert, M. A., Musical Director, F. R. C. O., in choir and choral training. The present program calls for songs by Mr. Child at The Carolina on Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday evenings, at The Holly Inn on Friday and the Country Club Saturday afternoon.

Sultans Who Wrote Verses

Among the royal authors must be included the Sultans of Turkey. Of thirty-five monarchs who have sat upon the throne of Osman II. Mr. Stanley Lane-Poole records, who have left verses the greatest poet was the terrible Selim the Grim. Abdul Hamid was passionately addicted to journalism, or rather to "djournalism." Only the "djournalji" which he fostered and the "djournalji" who wrote them would not be recognized by an institute of journalists. The djournals were the daily reports he received from his host of spies. They averaged hundreds a day, and the Sultan accumulated a collection of several millions.

Mr. Chaffee's Exhibition

Anticipated from year to year is the annual exhibition of color pictures by Mr. Albert Howard Chaffee; exquisite not only in technique, but delightful in choice of subject. Mr. Chaffee will be at The Inn Friday and Saturday next, and at The Carolina on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday following.

Spring Millinery Opening

The annual spring millinery opening of the Department Store is announced for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, February 27-28-29. The display will be in charge of a milliner who has made the selection to be shown in New York.
