MISS BARNETT'S TROPHY

Wins February Tennis Final From Miss Margaret Blancke

Women's singles tennis for the February cups developed an interesting series of sets, Miss Helen Barnett of New Haven winning the final from Miss Margaret Blancke of Plainfield, 7-5, 8-6. In the semi-final Miss Barnett won from Miss Caroline Fuller of New York, 6-1, 6-1, and Miss Blancke defeated Miss Lady Maude Fuller of New York by the same score.

Other participants were Miss Elizabeth Bunn of Yonkers, Miss Aline Davis, of Tenafly, Miss H. T. Durant of New York, Miss C. Hiscock of Syracuse, Mrs. M. G. Rae of Plainfield, Miss Gwendolyn Cummings of Brookline.

Men's singles are in progress.

The Pinehurst Cob Pipe

About the most refreshing thing in the pipe line ever offered smokers is the patent Pinehurst cob now on sale here. The difference is a detachable straight, flat stem of briar and cut rubber which has the right feel and which may be easily cleaned or attached to a new bowl in a moment, thus making the favorite cob a thing of never ending satisfaction where formerly it was little less than an aggravation.

Carolina Masquerade Tonight

An informal masquerade at The Carolina this (Saturday) evening is being anticipated by the entire Village; the invitation general. Details of arrangement are in the hands of a committee upon which Miss Ruby Mianda Stone is the leading spirit. Refreshments will be served at intermission and prizes will be given for the best costumes in several classes.

Master Slack's Fine Shooting

Master Alfred Marshall Slack, II, ten years old, holds the record at the rifle range with a score of twenty-two out of a possible thirty. At the traps, also, he has made some fine scores, one of twelve in fifteen, including ten straight.

At Home of Mrs. Hurd

Cards in aid of the Village Club charitable fund are announced for Monday at the Pines, the home of Mrs. W. L. Hurd. Please notify Mrs. Jillson at The Carolina or Miss Cummings at the Concord as early as possible.

Many Enjoy First Drag Hunt
