FIVE CENTS

FOUR TIN WHISTLE EVENTS

Foursomes, Bogy Handicap and Approaching and Putting Contests

Numerous Ties Add to the Interest of Saturday's Extensive Midseason Tournament Program

SATURDAY'S Tin Whistle tournaments included four events; foursomes for men, a bogy handicap for women, and putting and approaching contests, the prizes contributed by Henry C. Fownes, John L. Wyckoff, Donald J. Ross, H. W. Priest and A. I. Creamer. In the men's event E. A. Johnston and N. W. Dean, J. F. Sweeney and Chisholm Beach, tied at seventy-eight, playing with handicaps of seven each. In the women's event a tie also resulted at one up between Miss Kate Van Ostrand who played from scratch and Mrs. M. G. Rae whose allowance was thirty.

The approaching contest was conducted on the point system, one ball being played to the eighteenth green from distances of thirty, sixty and ninety yards. To make the hole scored five points, a five-foot radius three points, a ten-foot radius two points, and the green one point. E. B. Fay was first with six; I. S. Robeson, C. L. Becker and John R. Towle tying for second at four. Mr. Fay also tied with J. D. C. Rumsey at twenty-three in the putting contest, losing the playoff. In second position E. A. Johnston, R. J. Clapp, Col. J. E. Smith, J. D. Foot, P. S. Maclaughlin and G. S. Jenks were bunched in a sextuple tie at twenty-four. Scores in the foursomes and bogy contests are shown in the following summaries:

A COSMOPOLITAN THROG

Carolina Masquerade Provides Evening of Enjoyment for Large Company

Representatives of Many Lands and Many Climes Present Fascinating Picture

ALTHOUGH entirely informal and arranged on short notice, Saturday evening's masquerade at The Carolina proved one of the most entertaining affairs of the season for a company of several hundred onlookers. While the number in costume was not large the list of characters was varied and the impersonations excellent; a cosmopolitan throng representative of many lands and many climes presenting a fascinating picture. Prizes awarded went to Mr. Prestley S. Maclaughlin as a Chinese mandarin and Miss Kate Van Ostrand as Folly, both costumes perfect in every detail.

Mr. N. S. Hurd was excellent as a summer girl and Mr. Charles M. Fink was the Cream of Wheat Chef to perfection. Miss Hazel Shannon and Miss Myra B. Helmer were chic as French maids, Miss Ruth Fletcher and Miss Elizabeth Bunn were dainty as Yama Yama girls, Miss Rosamond Cummings was charming as the Queen of Hearts, Mrs. Spencer Waters delightful as the old fashioned girl, and Miss Dorothea Joyce and Miss Mary Tutt exquisite as French dolls. Among other costumes which attracted attention were Mr. W. S. Dillon as a sportsman, Mr. E. E. Babb as a clown, Mr. J. C. Neff as a sailor and Mrs. R. C. King as a Red Cross nurse.

The judges were Messrs. L. M. Hart and H. H. Buckley, Mrs. Guy E. Robinson, Mrs. I. S. Robeson and Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson. General dancing in which all participated, rounded out the evening, with refreshments at intermission.

Mr. Nichols Wins Trap Shooting

A. J. Nichols, shooting with a handicap of twenty, was the winner of the weekly trap shooting handicap with a score of five targets more than it would have been possible for the scratch man to make. D. T. Leahy (8) was second in ninety-six and E. H. Pinney (20) third in ninety-three.
