THE VILLAGE CLUB FETE

Annual Charity Benefit Planned on New and Elaborate Lines

A delightful element of anticipation adds interest to the Village Club Fete in the announcement of the committee as to date "sometime after March 11." Briefly the idea is that everything is in readiness and the event will take place upon the first fair day.

The pine grove is the scene of action and the hours are from three to six with music by The Carolina orchestra, card tables, a men's putting competition, children's games, refreshments and surprises as the attractions.

No one need have uneasiness as to the event escaping their notice for town criers will announce it with pomp and ceremony—bugle blasts and flashing posters.
