

THE UNITED CHAMPIONSHIP

Week Brings Many Additional Prominent Entries for Premier Event

Four Title Holders Head the List of Golf Experts Representing Many Sections

EVERY MAIL is bringing important additional entries for the Twelfth Annual United North and South Amateur Golf championship, scheduled for April 2, 3, 4, 5, 6. In addition to the list announced last week and including the title holder and French champion, Charles Evans, Jr., Walter J. Travis, former British and American champion and twice winner, Allan Lard, twice winner, William C. Fownes, Jr., the 1910 national champion, and Dr. C. H. Gardner, the Rhode Island champion, are C. G. Waldo, Jr., the Connecticut champion, Walter Fairbanks, prominent in the south and west, Oswald Kirkby, Albert Seckel, Christian Mack, W. J. Macdonald, and John Herron with a possibility of the presence of Sherrill Sherman, R. H. Mc Elwee, Dr. Lee Harban and several other well known Washington players, and a big delegation from southern resorts. For the amateur-professional four-ball, best ball match on March 30th and the open event, April 1st, a fast crowd is also assured. In the women's event which starts on Monday next, in addition to Misses Dorothy Campbell, Louise Elkins, Mary Fownes, and Myra Helmer, Mrs. F. T. Hayes is among others who have entered during the week.

Captain Fownes' Indians Won

The annual team match of the Tin Whistles resulted in a victory for the "Pirates" captained by Henry C. Fownes over the "Indians" led by captain Irving S. Robeson, fifty-three to forty-three.

The match was played on number two course and the system of scoring was one point for each nine hole win and two points for the match, a total of four.

The losing team bore the expenses of the annual dinner.

Mr. Dillon Wins Putting Trophy

Mr. W. S. Dillon was a winner of the putting competition held in connection with the Village Club Fete; Mr. R. C. King and Mrs. L. E. Beall tying for second and Mr. King winning the playoff. The prizes were a gold pocket knife and a handsome golf bag presented by Messrs. I. S. Robeson and Donald J. Ross.

Lexington Golf Tourney

A golf tournament for trophies contributed by Mrs. E. C. Bliss, added interest to the week for guests at The Lexington; Mr. J. R. Mason and Mrs. J. A. Durrell the prize winners.

SILVER FOILS THE HOSTS

Invitation Mixed Foursomes Attract Field of Forty Players

A tie at eighty-two between Mr. J. V. Hurd and Mrs. F. H. Bowles, whose allowance was thirteen, and Dr. A. M. Clark and Mrs. Donald Parsons whose handicap was twenty-six, gave zest to invitation mixed foursomes arranged by the Silver Foils; the margin of lead only two strokes. In second position, Mr. John S. Sweeney and Miss Lucy Priest (15), Mr. N. W. Dean and Miss Margaret Blancke (16), were also tied at eighty-four, while in third position, a quadruple tie resulted at eighty-five with the balance of the field closely bunched. The best gross round of the day was an eighty-nine for Mr. Oswald Kirkby and Miss Dorothy Campbell who played with a handicap of plus two. The scores:

PURCHASE THE HAWTHORNE

The Misses Barnett Join List of Private Cottage Owners

The purchase of the Hawthorne cottage by the Misses Helen and Edith Barnett of New Haven, will be welcome news to the entire Colony. Active in sports and social pleasures, they are both universal favorites; annual visitors who have spent many seasons here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Barnett.

The demand for cottages and sites has never been larger and, doubtless, before the season ends many additional names will be added to the rapidly increasing list of private owners.

Silver Foils Championship

The annual Club Championship of the Silver Foils, played upon two courses with handicaps, proved the most interesting of the season's tournaments. Full story next week.

WINCHESTER

Loaded Shotgun Shells

"LEADER"

You can't buy a safer, faster, harder, a more even shooting or a better keeping load than Winchester "Leader" smokeless powder shotgun shells. For field, fowl, or trap shooting, they are in a class by themselves, and give entire satisfaction in any make of shotgun. The results they give are due to their patented construction and the careful and exact manner in which they are loaded. The patented Corrugated Head used on Winchester shells is an invaluable feature. It absorbs the shock of the powder explosion and takes the strain from the paper tube instead of localizing it, as the old English method of metal lining does. That's why "Leader" shells are stronger and less apt to cut off at the mouth of the cup than shells made according to English ideas of long ago.
