

IF YOU could follow the washwoman home with your good frocks and linen; if you could see how few modern conveniences she uses; if you really knew how they were washed, dried and handled, do you think that you would still prefer her lack of system to our perfect system?

It's a business with us, and we surround that business with all the advantages that are to be had.

Our assistants take a pride in their work; they are neat and clean, their work clothes are spotless, and they have a modern, well lighted, well ventilated establishment in which to handle your washing.

We use only soft water and appliances of which you would approve if you saw them.

Why not come and see them? We should be glad to have you; we're proud of every detail which goes to the making of this modern Laundry.

In any event, give us a trial bundle. Come, too, if you can find the time.

FOLK DANCES IN COSTUME

Carolina Kirmess is Enjoyed by Audience of Fully Five Hundred

From Standpoint of Unique, Unquestionably Most Successful Entertainment in History of Village

THE ONLY regret connected with Saturday evening's Kirmess at The Carolina was that the music hall was not "hippodrome!" As it was, however, over four hundred people enjoyed the most entertaining event of the season. From the standpoint of the unique, the affair was undoubtedly the most successful in the history of the Village in the perfection of detail, picturesqueness of costumes and variety.

The hit of the evening was the Irish jig in which Messrs. N. S. Hurd and C. M. Fink, Mrs. C. N. Phillips and Miss Mary Fownes recalled the mirth of the Emerald Isle to even those who know of it only through the Blarney stone; a triple encore necessary before the audience reluctantly released them. In the Highland fling Misses Caroline Fuller, Rosamond Cummings and Sarah Fownes were twice recalled and the Dutch Dance with Miss Doris Bliss as Hans and Miss Ethel Barroll as Gretchen, was splendid.

The Spanish Gypsy dance given by Misses Ruby Stone and Heloise Durant, was in pleasing contrast with the French Pierre-Pierrot of the Misses Fuller; the minuet like Japanese dance of the Misses Florence Bennett and Geraldine Walker being followed by a solo dance by Miss Stone and the picturesque Italian tarantella in which Messrs. J. V. Hurd, C. N. Phillips, Charles H. Banes and the Misses Priscilla Beall, Adelle Thayer, Esther Tufts, Florence Smith participated.

Vocal solos by Mr. Child contributed to the pleasure of the evening, one hundred and fifty dollars netted for the Village Club charitable fund.

ALL PINEHURST GATHERED

collected by Meses. Jenks, Barney, Check, Bell, Gardner, Banes, Lard and Ellison and Misses Priest, Cummings, Fownes and Edith Barnett. Assisting in looking after the personal comfort of visitors once past the outposts, were Meses. James W. Tufts, Sheppard and Jillson, Misses Fuller, Lady Fuller and Beall; music by The Carolina orchestra contributing to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Bright bunting here and there contrasted pleasantly with the cool green of the pines, and the tints of booth and costume, with ever and always glints of sunshine, spots of shadow and the consciousness of God's glorious out of doors. As a result a large sum is added to the Village Club fund to be devoted to charitable work which is planned next year on more extensive lines than ever before.

Dr. Daly Wins at the Traps

Dr. W. C. Daly, shooting with an allowance of forty, led in the weekly trap shooting handicap, scoring ninety-seven. F. T. Sage (30) was second in ninety-three and A. E. Osleander (40) third in ninety-one.
