

THE HOLLY INN

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and home-like, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

QUAIL SHOOTING AT ITS BEST

Many Sportsmen Enjoy the Sport and Average Kills are Large

Use of Automobile Opens up Extensive
Range of Territory for Messrs.

J. H. and D. B. Wesson

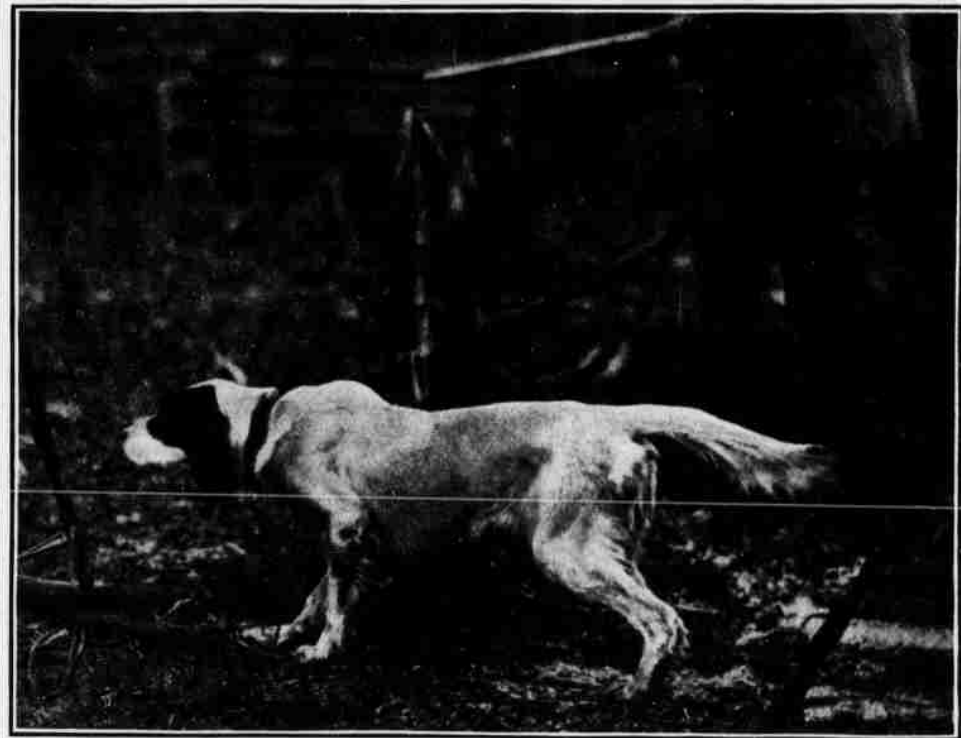

THE opening weeks of the quail shooting season finds the sport at its best with many hunters in the field and the average bags large. Following out the plan adopted by Mr. I. S. Robeson of Rochester, Messrs. J. H. and D. B. Wesson of Springfield bring their car for use in their daily trips upon which their wives are their companions. Mr. Douglas Wesson has a novelty in the form of a forty-one caliber gun, one of four which

INFORMAL GOLF PLAY

Blind Handicap and Sweepstake
Precede Autumn Tournament

Informal golf events preliminary to the Autumn tourney included a blind handicap with a triple tie for first between J. B. Bowen of Philadelphia (14) A. H. Shaw (5) and R. G. Shaw of Boston (10) at eighty-two, which Mr. Arthur Shaw won in a tie play-off. Charles B. Hudson (18) made eighty-four, J. D. C. Rumsey (14) eighty-five, and R. C. Shannon II (14) eighty-eight, while John G. Nicholson (10) and Rev. T. A. Cheatham (14) and G. Glen Worden of New York (12) were "disqualified" because their cards of seventy-nine and eighty fell below the bogey which proved to be eighty-one. The best gross score was an eighty-five for John R. Goodall who made the turn in a fast thirty-nine, but required forty-six strokes for the homeward journey.

In medal play sweepstakes P. B. O'Brien of Detroit (15) was first in seventy-five, with E. J. Ridgway of New York (5) second in seventy-six; Mr he is using. The average bags have been well above the dozen mark.

Messrs. B. G. Royall and E. R. Johnson of Philadelphia are rounding out a successful three weeks hunt, their best day's sport ten covies and thirty quail, the legal limit, with other kills of eighteen, twenty and twenty-three. Messrs. H. H. Stambaugh, John Stambaugh and W. B. Hall of Youngstown, J. D. Foot, J. D. Foot, Jr., M. C. Parsons and W. Williams of Rye are late additions to the list.

Messrs. David Gregg, Jr., of Brooklyn P. W. Whittemore of Boston and George H. Crocker of Fitchburg are dividing their time between shooting and golf. Mr. W. H. Browning and his son of New York, John C. Spring of Boston, Dr. T. D. Meyers of Philadelphia, J. T. Small of Toronto, and I. S. Robeson of Rochester are among others booked for the immediate future.
