FOX HUNTING SEASON OPENS

Preliminary Working Out Runs Occupy
Attention of Master and Huntsman

Pack Gets Away from Old Nat and Catches Fox He Desired to Save
for Future Hun

PRELIMINARY working out runs have marked the opening week of the fox hunting season, Master Twitty and Huntsman Nat occupied with "scouting" expeditions which have covered the territory round about pretty thoroughly.

"Got a few of 'em located," says Master Twitty, "and as soon as our friends are ready I'll promise a good opening chase. From what I hear we are going to have bigger crowds than ever, and thirty joined us last year."

DELIGHTFUL AUTO TRIP

Via Rockingham, Hoffman, Hamlet,
Ellerbe and Jackson Springs

Of the numerous auto trips radiating from Pinehurst, the following seventy-four mile run to Rockingham via Hoffman and Hamlet, and back via Ellerbe and Jackson Springs is most attractive. We are indebted to Mr. Frederic Bruce for the information:

Starting from the General Office at Pinehurst, follow the Pinehurst to Fayetteville Blue Book Route No. 791 as far as Aberdeen, then turn sharp right just before Aberdeen Station, follow railroad, crossing bridge at 7 miles.

7.5—Take left fork at 9.2, cross bridge and go up grade to Pine Bluff, (10 miles). Go straight through down grade, crossing bridge at 10.6.

11.4—Turn right (left to Keyser).

12.1—Turn left, cross long fill and bridge over Drowning Creek at 14.1.

Pass Hoffman railroad station at 18.2.

21.3—Cross railroad, passing Cognac Switch Station at 24.7.

29.3—Cross railroad. Hamlet 32 miles.

THE PINEHURST HUNT

Hunting by himself early in the week, Nat jumped a gray late in the afternoon, just beyond Taylorville on the Jackson Springs road. Five minutes of trailing and the race was on before the huntsman was aware of it. Thirty minutes later the kill resulted; mad music without a break.

"Tried to stop 'em, Marse Twitty," commented Nat, "an' sab de fox foh a hunt; but, loh sakes, Marse, yeh moight ez well have tried to stop er landslide. No use talkin', Marse Twitty, dose dawgs kin cuttinly burn de wind when dey gits stahted!"

Dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Ormsbee

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ormsbee were dinner guests of the Misses Sarah A. Beach and Annie B. Phelps at The Carolina during the week.

Miss Hutchinson Entertains

The birthday of Miss Olive Hutchinson was the occasion of a Carolina dinner for her young friends; a candle-lighted cake the table decoration.

N. B.—There is a good road from Hamlet to Rockingham and from Rockingham to Pinehurst. You can follow route No. 828 in the Blue Book, Vol. 3. The round trip is about 70 miles and will take about 4 hours.

BURLESQUE VAUDEVILLE

Younger Set at Carolina Plan Evening of Novel Entertainment

The younger set at The Carolina are planning burlesque vaudeville for Christmas eve with Dr. S. G. Gant, legerdemain artist, as the star attraction. There will also be the "Grizzly Kids," "Cherry Sisters," "Happy Pair" and "Bowery Toughs," not to mention the "Oriental Quintette" and the "Jolly Rovers." Doors open at 8.30; performance at 9. Everybody welcome. Collection? No siree!

Tally-ho and Tandem

Coaching and tandem driving promise novel entertainment during the winter through their recent introduction.
