WILBUR C. JOHNSON IS FIRST

Leads Field by Narrow Margin in Second of Tin Whistle Tournaments

R. C. Shannon, II, C. L. Becker and J. M. Thompson are All Well up Towards the Front

WILBUR C. Johnson of New York, playing with a handicap of eight strokes, led the field in the second of the Tin Whistle tournaments, a cemetery contest for prizes presented by Dr. J. S. Brown of Montclair and the Club, giving up the ghost just as the ball landed in the eighteenth hole. R. C. Shannon, II., of Brockport (13) was second six feet away, while R. J. Clapp of Hartford (11) was third some two feet nearer to the goal than C. B. Hudson of New Suffolk (14) whose ball lay fourteen feet away.

J. E. Kellogg of Fitchburg (13) got within six feet of the green, while C. L. Becker of Boston (6) was sixty feet away and J. M. Thompson of Springhaven (9) one hundred and fifty feet. With Dr. M. W. Marr of Dorchester (15) and H. W. Ormsbee of Fitchburg (15) it was a question of yards, one hundred and sixty-five for the former and one hundred and sixty for the latter.

The seventeenth hole was far enough for W. S. Rathbone of Detroit (13), J. D. C. Rumsey of Brooklyn (14), and T. B. Boyd of Minneapolis (18). Rev. T. A. Cheatham of Salisbury, N. C., (13) got within five feet of the green. F. B. Pottle of Jefferson Highlands, N. H., (16) and P. L. Lightbourn of Bermuda (12) crossed the "Styx" when the ball landed in the cup on the sixteenth. W. E. Truesdell of New York (8) and F. C. Abbe of Bethlehem, N. H., (17) gave out a bit short of the green.

S. H. Martel, Jr., of Montreal (9) and Cabot J. Morse of Boston (16) were the first to pass on, both surrendering with noble fortitude on the fourteenth.

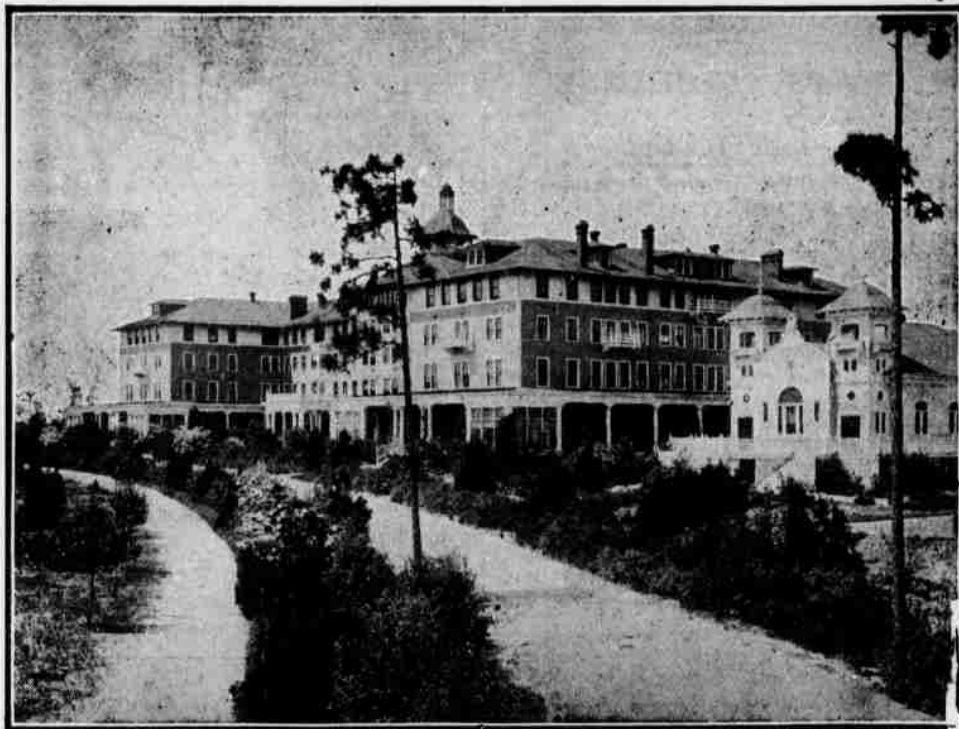

A special sweepstake rounded out Christmas day for the Whistles, the event match play vs. a par of seventy-one. J. Bishop of Bridgeport, with an allowance of six, finished first, one down, while J. M. Thompson of Springhaven, (9) was second, two down; the balance of the field strung along from three to nine down. Both tournaments were played on No. 2 course.

Riding Master Sankey Busy

Riding Master Sankey reports an unusually large number of pupils, Mr. Tyler L. Redfield, a recent addition to the ranks. Miss Alva Kendall, who began early in the season, is rapidly becoming accomplished in the art of equitation, and the little folks look forward to their ride as the event of the day. The rides arranged by Mr. Twitty promise to be very popular, and the demand for carriages by those who drive taxes the capacity of the Livery every fair day.
