

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and home-like, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

AMONG THE COTTAGERS

New Year Finds the Congenial Colony
Nearly Complete

Demand Exceeds Previous Records and Activity in Real Estate is Manifest in Many Directions

THE COTTAGE contingent has been recently augmented by the arrival of several new households. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hurd and Mr. N. S. Hurd of Pittsburg, Pa., are at The Pines for the winter, while Mr. H. C. Fownes and his son Charles B., also from the "smoky city," are again at the Lenox. Mr. Henry S. Houston and Mrs. Houston, of Holyoke, Mass., take the Arbutus and Col. R. A. Swigert, and Mrs. Swigert of Bethlehem, N. H., and Aiken, S. C., are comfortably domiciled in the Waldheim. Mr. Robert Hunter and family, of Noroton Heights, Conn., who were in the Plymouth last season, have taken up their residence in the Mystic, and Mrs. Guy Metcalf and Miss Clarissa Metcalf, who lease the Walnut, are at The Carolina during the preparation of their cottage. With the arrival of Mrs. James W. Tufts at the Craddock and Dr. Walter Page and Mrs. Page at the Sycamore about February first, the cottage colony will be complete.

Mrs. Emma C. Bliss, formerly lessee of The Lexington, who is to erect a new hotel on the lot recently purchased, will be here soon to perfect arrangements for the construction of the foundation of the new house which she plans to have ready for occupancy next November. Ground will be broken soon and work begun.

A distinguished visitor during the Holidays was Lieutenant Governor Bliss, of Rhode Island, who spent the week with his mother, Mrs. Z. R. Bliss, in the Beech cottage. While here Lieutenant Governor Bliss became re-infected with the golf microbe. He had not played for many years, but after one round on the course, became again a devotee, and left with the determination to take up the sport permanently. Doubtless, on his return next winter he will make some of his adversaries sit up and take notice.

Mr. Edgar L. Marston, a member of the firm of Blair & Co., bankers, of New York City, a recent guest of The Carolina, has purchased five hundred acres of land on the Gates Tract near Hoffman. It is stated that Mr. Marston will use this land for farming, beginning development at once.

Mrs. John Smithers, of Huntington, L. I., arrived here last week and will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. J. D. C. Rumsey, in the Plymouth. Mrs. Smithers is well known here through active work in the Village Club.

The work of reconstructing the Orange has been rapidly pushed forward, making it most comfortable and convenient. The lessees, Mrs. M. Lange and her daughter, Miss Lange of Boston, now in the Craddock, will take possession soon.

Mr. Fletcher N. Robinson, instructor in Latin at Phillips-Exeter, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Robinson, during the Holidays. He has recently joined the great army of "Appendicitis" and says it is easy when you know how.

Mrs. W. H. Micou and her son, Mr. W. C. Micou of the Dogwood, spent the Holidays with friends in Petersburg, Va., where they found the ground covered with eight inches of snow. They were perfectly content to return to Pinehurst.

Several real estate transactions are pending in and about the Village, but none of them have yet reached the stage which would warrant definite announcement.

THEIR TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Room Clerk and Mrs. E. R. Wingate are Victims of Surprise

Room Clerk and Mrs. E. R. Wingate, Jr., of The Carolina were the victims of a happy surprise on the tenth anniversary of their marriage Tuesday evening, in which the employes of the hotel joined with enthusiasm indicative of the popularity of the couple. Called to the annex on some slight pretense, Mr. and Mrs. Wingate found the social hall crowded and their welcome spontaneous. Bellman Carl Nelson at once presented Mrs. Ida Freese, who read a clever original poem, concluding with the presentation of a silver tea service, suitably inscribed. Mr. Wingate's response was brief but his heart was in the words. Dancing rounded out the evening with music by The Carolina orchestra and refreshments at intermission.

FOWNES AND HUNTER WIN

They are First in Tin Whistle Best Ball Bogey Play

H. C. Fownes and Robert Hunter, playing with handicaps of six each, lead in Monday's Tin Whistle tourney, a best ball bogey match, seven up. R. C. Shannon II (14) and W. G. Clark (5) were second five up with a quadruple tie for third at three up between Rumsey (14) and Worden (12), Becker (6) and Robeson (6), Cheatham (13) and Check (14), and Nicholson (14) and Boyd (8).

Other scores were: Johnston (10) and Truesdell (8), 1 up; W. L. Hurd (15) and N. S. Hurd (9), even up; Hudson (14) and Patterson (14), 1 down; Kellogg (14) and Ormsbee (14), Towle (12) and Lightbourn (12), 2 down; Pottle (16) and Clapp (11), 3 down.
