With the Quail Hunters

The coming of February finds the quail shooting good and a number enjoying it. Among the best of recent bags was a kill of eighteen by I. S. Robeson and fifteen by J. R. Such. From time to time a woodcock or dove adds variety and a few of the more energetic are anticipating matching their wits against that king of all game birds, the wild turkey.

First of Trap Handicaps

J. N. Huyck of Albany, shooting with an allowance of ten targets, was the winner of the first of the weekly trap shooting handicaps which continue through March, scoring ninety-two. E. A. Randall of Portland (0) was second in nine and Thomas Lenane Jr., third in eighty-four.

A Day in the Open

M. F. H. and Mrs. James T. Twitty were hosts on an out-door equestrian picnic Thursday. In the group were the Misses Clara Reed, Eleanor Reed, Irene Mundy, Jane Finney, Messrs. Coe and Wilkinson and Master James Mundy.

At The Lexington

Midwinter Tennis Championship

Final rounds of the annual Midwinter Tennis Championship are in progress as THE OUTLOOK goes to press. Full story next week.

Village Club Meets Wednesday

The regular meeting of the Village Club will be held in The Carolina card room Wednesday afternoon at 3.30.

SEASON SWINGS WIDE OPEN

Carolina Wins First of Baseball Games with Run in Closing Inning

Nip and Tuck from Start to Finish in Attempt to Break the Tie Score

BASEBALL swung wide open with Tuesday's game between The Carolina and Village teams, the former winning, ten to nine, with a single run scored in the seventh and last inning, and there wasn't a dull moment from opening play to final cheers.

It looked like a walk-over for the hill top boys when they chalked up a big four and a little two in the first two innings, with conspicuous oughts below them and opposite the Village; but the third and fourth innings found the tables turned and the score all even with the race nip and tuck through the fifth and sixth and the score nine all in the eighth, the winning run recorded as the climax of a game of hard hitting and many thrills.

Finnegan of the winning team, who enters the professional field next summer, was the bright and particular star of the afternoon, the nailing of a red hot liner which looked good for two bases, followed by a home run and the first ever made on the local field.

Thursday's game was a 10 to 3 win for the Carolinas, who had things their own way from the start.

The make up is excellent and the teams evenly matched. Just a little more "polishing up" and tallies won't come so easily! ¶ The players:

CAROLINA	VILLAGE
Morris	Nichols
Edson	McCaully
Finnegan	Maher
Sullivan	Brumiller
Moylon	Armstrong
Sylvester	Langdon
Hill	McVene
Sprudbury	Dunn
Eddy	McDonald

Putting at The Holly Inn
