

THE HOLLY INN

Season: January to May

The Holly Inn is one of the most comfortable, attractive and popular hotels in the South, accommodating with its annexes, 200 guests. The interior, which has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished since last season, is cheerful and homelike, no effort having been spared in putting the rooms and furnishings in first-class condition. There are a number of rooms connected with private baths which are let singly or en suite. The hotel is heated throughout by steam and there are open fires in the foyer and parlors. A large music room where daily concerts and dancing are enjoyed, together with the attractive Dutch room and the billiard room, provide appreciated social features. The excellent cuisine and service for which the hotel is noted, will be maintained and patrons will find the Holly Inn a most comfortable home from January to May.

INTEREST IN EQUITATION

Contributes Delightful Part to Diversified
Out-door Recreations of Visitors

First of Equestrian Gymkhanas
Planned for Immediate Future
— Socially Many Activities

INTEREST in equitation is contributing a delightful part to outdoor life here, and the number who enjoy their daily ride is unusually large, among the more enthusiastic devotees: Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Sisto of Brooklyn, the Misses Reed, Clara Reed, Eleanor Reed and Marie Sinclair of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Adler of Rochester, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Vilsack of Pittsburgh, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sawyer and Miss Jeanee Pushee of Boston, Miss Beatrice Slack of Brookline, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bryant of Detroit and Miss Shirley Holt of Charlotte, N. C. As a natural result have come numerous rides to various points round about, equestrian picnics and moonlight gallops. ¶ For the immediate future the first of the equestrian gymkhanas is planned, the program opening with a military drill and including a potato race, bow race, water-carrying race, coat and saddle race, and exhibition by two high school horses and a trick pony and dog. Points will be recorded for first and second wins in the various events, and for the highest totals for first and second, attractive trophies, now on exhibition at The Carolina, will be awarded to the leaders among men and women. ¶ Socially, the usual tri-weekly dances at the hotels have been enjoyed by the entire colony, with numerous evenings of bridge. Among more formal dinners at The Carolina was a spread tendered by Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hood of Boston, for Mr. and Mrs. John C. Spring, Mr. and Mrs. Parker W. Whittemore, also of the Hub, and Mr. and Mrs. George H. Crocker of Fitchburg. ¶ Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Beekman of New York were hosts for a party of friends.
