

THREE BALL HANDICAP PLAY HIGHWAYS AND BYWAYS

Six Point System Match is Season's Silver Foils Novelty

The three-ball handicap of the Silver Foils on the six point system of scoring, described in last week's issue of THE OUTLOOK, proved the most interesting event of the season's series, Mrs. Herbert L. Jillson of Bethlehem, N. H., Miss Dorothy Hutchinson of Lansing, Mich., and Mrs. I. S. Robeson of Rochester winning first, second and third in the final round, with total points of 39, 35 and 34 for prizes presented by Mrs. Leonard Tufts, Mrs. L. E. Beall and the Club.

In the semi-final, Mrs. Jillson won from Mrs. Shannon and Miss Cummings, Mrs. Robeson defeated Mrs. Allison, and Mrs. Aborn and Miss Hutchinson advanced on a victory over Mrs. Ormsbee and Miss Priest. ¶ In the first round, Mrs. Jillson beat Miss Shannon by 6 and 4, Mrs. R. C. Shannon, II., beat Miss Linton 3 and 2, Miss Cummings beat Mrs. Metcalf 5 and 4, Mrs. Robeson beat Mrs. P. M. Shannon 3 and 1, Mrs. Allison beat Mrs. Truesdell 1 up, Mrs. Aborn beat Mrs. Rae and Miss Barnett, Miss Priest beat Miss Blanche 3 and 1, Mrs. Ormsbee beat Mrs. Check 2 up, and Miss Hutchinson beat Mrs. Ross 3 and 2. ¶ The usual club handicaps were in effect.

In a special putting competition for a prize presented by Fuleihan, the jeweler, a triple tie resulted at twenty-six between Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Robeson and Miss Shannon; Mrs. Randall winning the play-off.

BECKER VERSUS FOWNES

East Defeats West as Result of Handicap Differences

"Talking about Club handicaps," commented Henry, "here am I with four, and Beck, who can give me three or four strokes any time, with six." ¶ "Yes and come in seven or eight down," was the dry comment of the mathematician.

¶ "Now, honest, you know you can four times out of five," was the response. ¶ "If I was driving three hundred yards and holing out mashy approaches which I am not," was the retort.

Then the Secretary butted in: "Play him even, Henry, and play for this," was the suggestion as a trophy was offered. ¶ "It's a trade," was the dual comment. That's how it started. ¶ Here's the result, three up and one to play, with medal play scores of eighty-one each in the case of Charton L. Becker of Philadelphia, County of Jefferson, State of New York, versus Henry C. Fownes of Pittsburgh, Borough of Oakmont, State of Pennsylvania.

BECKER—Out—5 5 4 6 5 4 5 3 3—40
FOWNES—Out—4 5 5 5 7 2 6 4 4—42
BECKER—In—4 5 5 5 4 4 6 3 5—41—81
FOWNES—In—4 5 5 5 4 5 3 4 4—39—81
BECKER wins, 3 and 1.

Work Begun on New Hotel

Work is well under way on the cellar for the new hotel which Mrs. E. C. Bliss of Bethlehem, N. H., is building. The plans call for a complete and modern house which will play an important part in providing accommodations of moderate price.

Col. and Mrs. Swigert Find Delight in Exploring Countryside

The interest and fascination of the varied drives round about Pinehurst have been given new meaning through the interest of Col. and Mrs. R. A. Swigert of Kentucky, who are spending the winter at the Waldheim cottage. ¶ They bring four horses and they rarely miss a day afield, finding especial delight in exploration, not only of highways but the myriads of byways, all of which hold some delightful surprise in store; a quaint cabin, a picturesque grove of pines, a charming bit of scenery, with ever and always the variety of hillside and plain, forest and open.

SEVENTY-FIVE TIES FOR MEDAL

Corkran and Whittemore Lead in St. Valentine's Qualification Round

One hundred and ten players participated in Tuesday's qualification round of the ninth annual St. Valentine's golf tournament. Its feature was a tie between P. W. Whittemore of Brookline and B. W. Corkran of Baltimore for the gold medal offered. The cards:
