RAILROAD OFFICIALS MEET

Carolina is Scene of Two Important Meetings During the Week

The presence of prominent officials representing various railroads has added to the interest of the week at The Carolina. ¶ Thursday morning a committee of financial and accounting officers met in joint conference for the purpose of considering methods of clearing agreed balances between carriers, those present including: T. H. B. McKnight of the Pennsylvania Lines West, Treasurer H. C. Ansley of the Southern, Treasurer George H. Crosby of the Rock Island, Treasurer F. H. Hamilton of the Frisco Lines, Assistant Treasurer C. W. Rhodes of the Baltimore and Ohio, representing the financial officers, and Comptroller A. H. Plant of the Southern, C. I. Sturgis of the Burlington Lines, Comptroller C. M. Bunting of the Pennsylvania, Comptroller Frank Nay of the Rock Island, and Vice President W. H. Williams of the Delaware and Hudson.

¶ Wednesday night and Thursday a sub-committee of the committee on corporate, fiscal and general accounts met to consider the matter of railway statistics. In addition to the officers mentioned, Comptroller L. A. Robinson of the Chicago and North-Western, and General Auditor R. A. White of the New York Central and members of the Interstate Commission were present.
