

The Pinehurst Outlook

PINEHURST, MOORE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

VOL. XVI, NO. 12

SATURDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 22, 1913

FIVE CENTS

KEEN PLAY IN WOMEN'S GOLF

Miss Louise Elkins Leads in Match Rounds and Wins Chief Trophy

Miss Dorothy Hutchinson Figures as Star of the Week in Two Keenly Played Contests

KEEN play maintained interest at high pitch throughout the seventh annual St. Valentine's golf tournament for women, in striking contrast with Tuesday's final rounds, none of which advanced beyond the fourteenth green. ¶ Miss Louise Elkins of Oakmont was the ultimate winner of the chief trophy, six up and four to play, from Mrs. R. W. Thrift of Shawnee. In the second division Miss Edith Barnett of New Haven won, and in the third, Miss Gwendolyn Cummings of Brookline.

In qualification the race was a pretty one between Mrs. Alexander McGregor of Belmont who won the gold medal with a card of one hundred and two, Mrs. Thrift making one hundred and three, and Miss Elkins one hundred and five. ¶ The surprise of the week came in the first round of match play and the defeat of Mrs. McGregor by Miss Dorothy Hutchinson of Detroit in a match which was decidedly out of the ordinary. Going out Miss Hutchinson won only the ninth hole, Mrs. McGregor winning five and turning home four up. Coming in, however, Miss Hutchinson reversed the order, squared the match on the sixteenth, gained a lead on the seventeenth, and halved the eighteenth.

Advancing to meet Miss Elkins the young Detroit player gave the former United North and South Champion a close match which the eighteenth hole decided. Halving the first hole, Miss Elkins gained the lead on the second, lost it on the third, 4-3, and halved the fourth and fifth in 5's and 4's. Miss Hutchinson won the sixth, but lost the seventh, captured the eighth in a bogey, 3, and driving out of bounds picked up on the ninth. The crisis came on the tenth where Miss Hutchinson with two strokes to the good, failed to win and halved in 6. Miss Elkins won the eleventh, 3-4, the twelfth, 4-5, and halved the thirteenth 5. Miss Hutchinson took the fourteenth and fifteenth, 6-8, 6-7, but lost the sixteenth, 7-9, divided honors in the seventeenth in 3, and, dormie one, played the eighteenth badly and lost two down, 5-7.

Mrs. Thrift went forward on a four and two win from Miss I. C. Linton of the Royal Montreal Club, in the first round, and a three and two victory over Mrs. E. A. Randall of Portland, in the second. ¶ Both semi-final matches in the second division ended on the 18th.

¶ The summary:

FIRST EIGHT
Mrs. Alexander McGregor	52	50 102

Mrs. R. C. Shannon, II.	56	60 116
Mrs. C. C. Brinton	56	61 117
Mrs. Daniel Simonds	56	62 118
Mrs. Edward Worth	53	67 120
Miss E. C. Damon	58	64 122
Mrs. M. D. Rae	53	69 122
THIRD EIGHT
Miss Gwendolyn Cummings	52	71 123
Mrs. J. N. Huyck	59	66 125
Mrs. J. B. Price	63	63 126
Miss Marjorie Lippincott	64	62 126
Mrs. A. B. Skelding	60	68 128

MR. ERMAN J. RIDGWAY
The man who made "Everybody's Magazine" finds in Pinehurst the ideal resort.

Mrs. R. W. Thrift	49	54 103
Miss Louise Elkins	49	56 105
Miss Dorothy Hutchinson	50	57 107
Miss Agnes Blancke	53	56 109
Mrs. Guy Metcalf	53	57 110
Mrs. E. A. Randall	53	57 110
Miss I. C. Linton	52	62 114
SECOND EIGHT
Miss Edith Barnett	51	63 114
Miss Hazel Shannon	52	63 115

Miss J. A. Brown	57	72 129
Miss Helen Barnett	63	69 132
Mrs. D. B. Macomber	63	70 133

FIRST EIGHT
FIRST ROUND—Mrs. R. W. Thrift Shawnee beat Miss I. C. Linton Royal Montreal, 4 and 2; Mrs. E. A. Randall Portland beat Miss Agnes Blancke Mont-
(Concluded on page three)

BIG CROWD FOLLOWS PROS

Largest Gallery in Local Golf History Watches Play of Fast Sextette

Donald Ross and Open Champion McDermott are Six Strokes in Lead with Sixty-Seven

THE LARGEST gallery in the history of local golf turned out Saturday afternoon to follow four ball, best ball play between a sextette of fast professionals including National Champion J. J. McDermott who played with Donald J. Ross, Massachusetts Champion Alexander Ross who was paired with W. G. Fovargue, and M. J. Brady who was partnered with Thomas McNamara.

¶ As for spectacular play no hole was without it, and time and time again six drives went hissing straight down the course almost beyond the range of vision. To be sure, some of the players found the rough, and a few of them the traps which have made the number two course famous, but it did not seem to bother the experts in the least.

Donald Ross was the bright and particular star of the afternoon, and the sixty-seven which he recorded in play with McDermott won the first money of the liberal purse contributed by visitors, the other two pairs tying for second at seventy-three. ¶ The cards:

GOING OUT
Ross & McDermott	4 4 3 4 5 3 5 3 3-34
Ross & Fovargue	4 4 3 5 6 3 5 3 4-37
Brady & McNamara	4 5 4 4 5 3 6 3 3-37
COMING IN
Ross & McDermott	4 4 3 4 4 3 4 3 4-33-67
Ross & Fovargue	4 4 4 4 5 3 4 3 5-36-73
Brady & McNamara	3 5 4 6 4 3 4 3 4-36-73

¶ Saturday evening the group were entertained by Manager Fred C. Abbe at dinner at The Holly Inn with William H. Potts, who acted as official scorer, as the guest of honor.

Guests of Hon. and Mrs. McGregor

Hon. Alexander McGregor of the Governor's Council of Massachusetts and Mrs. McGregor, were hosts at a jolly Lift-the-Latch supper Wednesday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Robeson, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Justus Kendall, Mr. E. B. Slayton and Miss Lucy Priest. ¶ Automobiles conveyed the party to and from Pine Bluff.